

Brennan With Strzok and John Kerry Worked to Set Up Russian Espionage Traps For GOP

 Cristina Laila by Cristina Laila 502 Co

2.7K Share

501 Tweet

Email

A major new front is developing after the House discovered the FBI had a spy planted inside of the Trump campaign on top of the illegal wiretaps.

Barack Obama, arguably the worst president in US history, was wiretapping and listening in on all of the Trump campaign and transition team calls.

And now we know his Deep State minions had a spy inside the Trump campaign!

Kimberly Strassel lit DC ablaze on Thursday after she dropped a bombshell in a Wall Street Journal article titled, "About That FBI Source."

Strassel, citing WaPo's story using 'unnamed law-enforcement leakers' says Nunes' request dealing with a "top secret intelligence source" may very well mean the FBI had a plant inside the Trump camp:

Thanks to the Washington Post's unnamed law-enforcement leakers, we know Mr. Nunes's request deals with a "top secret intelligence source" of the FBI and CIA, who is a U.S. citizen and who was involved in the Russia collusion probe. When government agencies refer to sources, they mean people who appear to be average citizens but use their profession or contacts to spy for the agency. Ergo, we might take this to mean that the FBI secretly had a person on the payroll who used his or her non-FBI credentials to interact in some capacity with the Trump campaign.

Everybody wants to know who this plant was and who he was funneling information to inside various government agencies.

Investigative reporter for The New York Post, Paul Sperry says in the summer of 2016, former CIA Director John Brennan, through his FBI liaison, Peter Strzok, with the help of former Secretary of State John Kerry were trying to set Russian espionage traps for minor players in the Trump camp.

Sperry tweeted: DEVELOPING: A major new front is opening in the political espionage scandal. In summer 2016, Brennan with his FBI liaison Strzok, along with help from Kerry @ State, were trying to set Russian espionage traps for minor players in the Trump campaign through cultivated intel assets

DEVELOPING: A major new front is opening in the political espionage scandal. In summer 2016, Brennan with his FBI liaison Strzok, along with help from Kerry @ State, were trying to set Russian espionage traps for minor players in the Trump campaign through cultivated intel assets

— Paul Sperry (@paulsperry_) May 11, 2018

Paul Sperry also pointed out this interesting piece of information:

Interesting recent addition to STEFAN A HALPER's Wikipedia page ...

"He has been exposed as a CIA and M-16 spy behind the FBI Russiagate investigations of the Trump Campaign and is an informant to the Mueller Special Prosecutor investigation." <https://t.co/WF9sCL6H3m>

— Paul Sperry (@paulsperry_) May 11, 2018

Since it was removed, here are the screenshots:

Good catch! It's already been removed. Here are the screenshots. <pic.twitter.com/3fdLLOGrSf>

— 🇺🇸 MAGA 🇺🇸 (@drdrjojo) May 11, 2018

Here's what we know about John Kerry's involvement with Hillary's phony Russia dossier so far:

Byron York of the Washington Examiner previously reported that the Obama State Department was being probed as to whether or not they had a hand in the dossier. York notes Steele was viewed inside the Obama State Department as a valuable source for intelligence on all things Russia. Obama State officials made a habit of disseminating reports the former British spy authored for private clients around the Department:

According to a March report by investigative reporter, Sara Carter, John Kerry was officially under investigation by the House Intel Committee for his "possible role" in the Steele dossier.

Sara Carter reported:

The House Select Committee on Intelligence is now investigating former Secretary of State John F. Kerry's possible role into the unverified dossier paid for by the Democratic National Committee and Hillary Clinton Campaign, this reporter has learned. The dossier, assembled by a former British spy, laid the foundation for the FBI's investigation into alleged collusion between President Trump and Russia and was the essential piece of evidence used by the FBI to get a warrant to spy on a former volunteer for the Trump campaign.

Chairman Nunes is also investigating whether former CIA Director John Brennan perjured himself in a public testimony about the dossier.

Paul Sperry reported via Real Clear Investigations:

In his May 2017 testimony before the intelligence panel, Brennan emphatically denied the dossier factored into the intelligence community's publicly released conclusion last year that Russia meddled in the 2016 election "to help Trump's chances of victory."

Brennan also swore that he did not know who commissioned the anti-Trump research document (excerpt here), even though senior national security and counterintelligence officials at the Justice Department and FBI knew the previous year that the dossier was funded by the Hillary Clinton campaign.

Peter Strzok was removed from Mueller's team after anti-Trump text messages were discovered by the Inspector General.

Strzok also teamed up with McCabe to ambush General Flynn in a surprise FBI interview which led to his firing; Flynn then pleaded guilty for lying to the FBI.

Rumors are flying and a few names are being thrown around about who this possible FBI plant may be, but once it's revealed, all hell is going to break loose. This is a HUGE development.

No wonder why Rosenstein is fiercely working to keep documents from the House Intel Committee and House Oversight Committee.

Story developing...

Retired FBI agent and CNN analyst James Gagliano Says Impending IG Report on FBI's 7th Floor Under James Comey Is "Worse Than Expected" (thegatewaypundit.com)

by Scrooblemeyer to news (+31|-1)

comment

The Balance of Evidence Is Starting to Flow Steadily Away From Trump and onto His Accusers. (nysun.com)

by Scrooblemeyer to news (+14|-1)

1 comment