I usually take Sundays off from Downtrend, but this story, man, just had to be shared.

Not that you need any additional reasons to never marry a liberal woman, but let me nevertheless present to you today the case of Susan Peirez, a leftist New York State employee who made headlines this week over her shitty behavior earlier this month on a domestic Delta Airlines flight, as reported by The Washington Post:

Susan Peirez was removed from the Feb. 6 flight from New York City to Syracuse, N.Y., after a flight attendant accused her of screaming at a mother and her baby.

The mother, Marissa Rundell, posted a video on Facebook of Peirez saying she worked for New York Gov. Andrew Cuomo and threatening to have the flight attendant fired.

Peirez had asked to sit further away from the “crying baby” — who was not heard crying in the video — before she was ultimately removed from the plane.

 Hi The U.K. Daily Mail further notes that, during the flight, Peirez repeatedly cursed around Rundell's baby, despite being asked by the mother to stop, and even told Rundell to "shut the f**k up and shove it."

She likewise threatened the flight attendant, saying, "You may not have a job tomorrow."

Watch some of her behavior in the video below:

Not only was Peirez ultimately forced off the flight, much to her apparent inconvenience, but she's also since been suspended from her cushy \$95,000-year position with the New York State Council on the Arts.

Ouch!

And while the media ignored her political leanings — rightly so, since they're irrelevant to the story — this jackass (points to self) couldn't resist checking.

Here are screenshots of some of her FB postings:

She's a leftist cow, alright, though as of Sunday, it appears she's now a soon-to-be-unemployed leftist cow.

Cowabunga, dude!

PS: Seriously, NEVER marry a liberal woman. Ever!

The important part of this story is $95K per year!!! $95K per year for some stupid desk job on the "Council on the Arts". That's why your taxes are so high. This stupid bitch makes $95K a year and probably does next to nothing all day.

She probably has a liberal arts degree from some NY college. In the real world she'd be lucky to make half that but because she's a foaming-at-the-mouth liberal she gets a cushy job with the state government likely because of connections.

In the real world her job would include the words "Do you want fries with at cheeseburger?".

"Council for the Arts." Fukk potholes, crumbling bridges, unsafe & slow subways, half the population addicted to crack or opiods, traffic moving thru Manhattan at an average 3 MPH....we need tax money to fund bullshit that in a free market would wither on the vine before the vine poked its head out of the dirt.

A lot of places require that a percentage of the budget gets spent on "art" When they built a prison outside my town the state spent a half million dollars on a san franciso artist (can't support local artist) to make sky sweeps. (oars mounted on a pivot.at the center.) Of course the oars kept breaking and they just kept giving this idiot more money for years till they just scraped them and left the ugly mounts as a reminder of tax dollars wasted. <http://www.aberdeenwa.gov/s...>

The pastor today said "The tongue is a reflection of the condition of the heart". Leftists always seem to make it true.

  ar That's a lesson I try to take to heart. It's sometimes hard to take a stand against an evil idea without hating the person who voices it.

Ha ha!! I dated a liberal woman one time about 35 years ago. I learned my lesson the hard way. I still have mental scars from that bitch!! I had to cure myself by dating several conservative women, and eventually marrying "The One". But suffice it to say, I had phunn in the eighties!! I wouldn't dare live the lifestyle I did then today!!

Wonder what ever happened to that liberal woman you dated?

Not really. I know she had a couple kids, and got a license as a radiology tech, so I'm sure she's doing okay.

I just couldn't handle the crazy liberal tude.

Wrong. The media should have absolutely should have mentioned her political background.

The media ignored her political leanings because she is a democrat in which, she used her job with Governor's office (DEMOCRAT) to threaten the flight attendant LOUDLY as if she were the Governor herself!

I am glad she was suspended without pay. Hopefully at the end of her suspension her employer will make the decision to terminate her.

However, she should have been fired immediately for abuse of power using her job to threaten a flight attendant with.

If I were a NY taxpayer I would be outraged that this 'woman'? was getting paid to just sit on a useless council but it comes as no surprise that 'she'? thinks 'she'? should get special treatment because of being an elite of the Cuomo leftist regime.

This probably won't be received well but it looks like she was in first class where the ticket costs close to a grand. I get that she's an entitled fugly j3wess bolshevik hag but who the heck wants to sit next to a screaming baby?? She seemed pretty tame about the request whether or not she should have tried to use the governor as leverage is a different story.

Delta passenger who 'screamed at a woman and her baby' placed on leave from government job

Delta Air Lines passenger booted for 'screaming' about a baby

A passenger was removed from a Delta Air Lines flight earlier this month for loudly complaining about having to sit next to an 8-month-old baby.

A woman who allegedly “screamed” at a mother and her baby aboard a Delta-operated flight has been suspended from her job with the New York State government.
