GawkModo does the malicious character assassination things that the Obama and Clinton White House Press Office don't want to be caught doing.

The DNC's lapdog attorney generals in California and New York, along with Judges who are backers of the DNC, went a long way towards keeping the scam up. Now, though, with the firing of cover-up kings James Comey and Eric Holder at DOJ, the financing by Peter Thiel and a few other billionaires and investigation demands to the new FBI, GawkModo may have a rough future ahead.

GawkModo destroyed the lives of its targets forever by manipulating web data in front of 7.5 billion people for the rest of internet time. GawkModo's brands and staff now have to be destroyed: FOREVER as a fair trade.

These people saw the payments-for-hit-jobs. They saw the money go to-and-from Google, Musk, Omidyar, et al. They should talk today because deeds done in the dark ALWAYS come to light!

victims of the GawkModo character assassination attacks from ever getting a fair hearing in court. They told lawyers, that might have taken cases, that they "would never get another tech or media contract if they took victims cases.

THE VICTIMS PROMISE TO HAUNT EVERY PAST AND CURRENT EMPLOYEE, STAFFER AND BACKER OF GAWKMODO FOREVER, OR UNTIL COMPENSATED FOR THEIR DAMAGES.

CNNMoney has tapped tech reporter Adrian Covert to cover Apple devices and other gadgets for the technology section of the business website.

Covert is currently an associate editor at Gizmodo.com, where he started out as an editorial assistant in 2007. (Although his LinkedIn profile says he is a "space assassin," which is actually an important function of tech writing that most recruiters overlook.) He'll be working the gadgets beat for CNNMoney starting December 3.

Said CNNMoney managing editor Lex Haris in an announcement sent this morning:

Adrian comes to us from Gizmodo, and brings a deep knowledge of tech trends, news sense, and sharp writing style (the headline "Hey Netflix, get your s*** together" was one of our favorites). And we all loved a sty line on his resume noting that he was Time Person of the Year in 2006 — back when YOU were too.

Adrian will be on the gadget beat, focusing on news and reviews about the steady stream of devices churned out by Apple and all of its rivals. It's an important piece of our tech coverage that Stacy's been pushing for, bolstering the already important pillars that we cover so well: Social media, start-ups, security, mobile, as well as the deep Big Tech expertise from Fortune and consumer offerings from CNN.com. It's no wonder the section has had such explosive growth — up 98% in the past two years.

Please extend a warm welcome.

Welcome, Adrian. Review the social features on those gadgets and we'll totally do a link-back! Also, don't forget to update your LinkedIn profile.
