PRESSCOMPILESM

In a recent federal funding program, we went to Washington DC and delivered tens of thousands of letters, to federal offices, from customers who wanted one of our car systems. In this particular funding program, that was more existing customer requests, and validations, THAN ALL OF THE OTHER APPLICANTS COMBINED.

This is why the competitors are so scared. The market has spoken. They want our safety, our prices, our engineering, our designs and our cost-effective value.
