

Criminal Actions charged against: Dept. Of Energy, Former White House Staff, Goldman Sachs & Associated Parties. After over 5 years of investigation, documents and charges are about to be released which will demonstrate a criminal manipulation of public money and process by a group of associated parties who illegally rerouted money, stocks and positions of value for personal gain. Those parties are shown in the attached chart, the actions of which will be deeply detailed in forthcoming releases. Those parties include: Staff of the U.S. Department of Energy, former White House staff, Goldman Sachs, a group of venture capitalists, Detroit auto companies and participants at specific technology companies. The manipulations of money exceed many tens of billions of dollars of taxpayer money.

According to Laurie Bennett of Muckety:

<http://news.muckety.com/2011/11/17/billionaires-tapped-doe-loan-program/35141>

“More than one Obama bundler stood to benefit from DOE Guarantees”. The data shows that individuals from both the Bush and the Obama administration engaged in crimes of corruption. Ms. Bennett has used scientific and investigative data to chart out the inappropriate links between all of the parties involved, examples can be seen at the links above. According to the The Center for Public Integrity, four of the companies in which one bundler: (Westly Group) have invested have received more than $510 million in grants and loans from the Energy Department. CPI has uncovered and documented a vast set of indiscretions.

Bloomberg News organization has assigned over 15 investigators to the story and discovered that the crimes and tactics are so vast and audacious that an entire new filing system needed to be coordinated. One of the more disturbing parts of the reporting is that while some, at responsible law enforcement and regulatory agencies, are focused on conviction efforts, others are focused on cover-up and protection efforts on behalf of their bosses.

Goldman Sachs has been found to have organized, benefitted from, paid out to or interceded in the relationships and companies of all of the parties on the attached chart. The former White House staff are all commonly known to have left the White House at about the same time when they realized they were exposed in the escapade. Documents, emails and former administrative staff from those parties now provide irrefutable evidence of their involvement. One of them, Mr. Rattner, has already been indicted on securities fraud charges. See: <http://corruptiondoe.weebly.com>

The Oversight Committee investigating Solyndra has been hesitant to expose all of the data being uncovered because that data can put members of both parties in federal prison. Now that a large number of people from both parties have been exposed as participants in ill-gotten cash, stock and position benefits, the inclination, by current groups, to deepen the investigations has been slowed. Forthcoming document releases and charges filings are expected to revive those investigations.

In short; The Bush Administrative created a carve-out of tax dollars for favored associates and assigned Lachlan Seward to manage and control the funds. As the funds were distributed, via falsified due diligence and lock-out of competing interests, the Obama administration took the funds over and redistributed them to their favored friends while still keeping the falsified and manipulated due diligence and lock-outs in place. Old deals from the Bush administration were kept in place to buy silence from those parties still around. Goldman Sachs made sure that certain parties and elected officials got key stock awards (as shown in the recent 60 Minutes expose:

<http://www.politico.com/news/stories/1111/68271.html>) (There will be a series of 60 minutes exposes that started with the Abramoff story and will continue) and managed the funding packages for the awardees while skimming, hedging and even betting on "intended-to-fail" awardees like Solyndra and Beacon. All the while making certain that only friends of bundlers got awards. As of today, the 100% failure of DOE to award to even one American small technology business applicant makes it overtly obvious that the DOE funds were entirely set-up as payback monies and not domestic innovation or job creation monies. DOE Detroit & Telsa-VC controlled staffers intentionally killed off Next, Aptera and a number of other electric car companies by putting them on "permanent delay" as instructed by their handlers.

This is part one of a series of releases that will detail the crimes, actions, money routing, benefits and manipulations practiced by each individual named below, along with certain elected officials. The data includes recordings, emails, signed testimony and contractual materials.
