David Hogue is a Design Lead at Google Corporation.

On Saturday David Hogue went off on a profanity-laced tirade against Republicans.

David Hogue: You are finished, @GOP. You polished the final nail for your own coffins. FUCK. YOU. ALL. TO. HELL. I hope the last images burned into your slimy, evil, treasonous retinas are millions of women laughing and clapping and celebrating as your souls descend into the flames.

But Hogue wasn't finished.

This guy is a lead designer at Google — the same company that regularly censors conservative speech.

And you now we know why.
