

Google Technology to Read Your Thoughts and Implant New Ones

By hassam

HAVE you ever thought about something you never shared with anyone, and have been horror-struck at the mere thought of someone coming to know about your little secret? If you have, then you probably have all the more reason to be paranoid now thanks to new and improved security systems being developed around the world to deal with terrorism that inadvertently end up impinging on one's privacy.

Some of the countries involved in such programmes include USA, UK, Spain, Germany and France. Recently, the National Security Agency (NSA) of the US has developed a very efficient method of controlling the human brain. This technology is called Remote Neural Monitoring (RNM) and is expected to revolutionise crime detection and investigation.

 hand-on-brain

What is it?

RNM works remotely to control the brain in order to read and detect any criminal thought taking place inside the mind of a possible perpetrator. Research studies have shown that the human brain thinks at a rate of about 5000 bits per second and does not have the capacity to compete with supercomputers performing via satellites, implants and biotelemetry. The human brain has a distinctive set of bioelectric resonance system. For the RNM system, supercomputers are being used and, thus, with its help, supercomputers can send messages through an implanted person's nervous system in order to influence their performance in a desired way.

RNM has been developed after about 50 years of neuro-electromagnetic involuntary human experimentations. According to many scientists, within a few years it is expected that DNA microchips will be implanted in the human brain which would make it inherently controllable. With RNM, it will be possible to read and control a person's emotional thought processes along with the subconscious and dreams. At present, around the world, supercomputers are monitoring millions of people simultaneously with the speed of 20 billion bits per second especially in countries like USA, Japan, Israel and many European countries. RNM has a set of certain programs functioning at different levels, like the signals intelligence system which uses electromagnetic frequencies (EMF), to stimulate the brain for RNM and the electronic brain link (EBL). The EMF Brain Stimulation system has been designed as radiation intelligence which means receiving information from inadvertently originated electromagnetic waves in the environment. However, it is not related to radioactivity or nuclear detonation. The recording machines in the signals intelligence system have electronic equipment that investigate electrical activity in humans from a distance. This computer-generated brain mapping can constantly monitor all electrical activities in the brain. The recording aid system decodes individual brain maps for security purposes.

What does it do?

For purposes of electronic evaluation, electrical activity in the speech centre of the brain can be translated in to the subject's verbal thoughts. RNM can send encoded signals to the auditory cortex of the brain directly bypassing the ear. This encoding helps in detecting audio communication. It can also perform electrical mapping of the brain's activity from the visual centre of the brain, which it does by bypassing the eyes and optic nerves, thus projecting images from the subject's brain onto a video monitor. With this visual and audio memory, both can be visualised and analysed. This system can, remotely and non-invasively, detect information by digitally decoding the evoked potentials in 30-50Hz, 5 milliwatt electromagnetic emissions from the brain. The nerves produce a shifting electrical pattern with a shifting magnetic flux which then puts on a constant amount of electromagnetic waves. There are spikes and patterns which are called evoked potentials in the electromagnetic emission from the brain. The interesting part about this is that the entire exercise is carried out without any physical contact with the subject.

The EMF emissions from the brain can be decoded into current thoughts, images and sounds in the subject's brain. It sends complicated codes and electromagnetic pulse signals to activate evoked potentials inside the brain, thus generating sounds and visual images in the neural circuits. With its speech, auditory and visual communication systems, RNM allows for a complete audio-visual brain to brain link or a brain-to-computer link.

Of course, the mechanism needs to decode the resonance frequency of each specific site to modulate the insertion of information in that specific location of the brain. RNM can also detect hearing via electromagnetic microwaves, and it also features the transmission of specific commands into the subconscious, producing visual disturbances, visual hallucinations and injection of words and numbers in to the brain through electromagnetic radiation waves.

Also, it manipulates emotions and thoughts and reads thoughts remotely, causes pain to any nerve of the body, allows for remote manipulation of behaviour, controls sleep patterns through which control over communication is made easy. This can be used for crime investigation and security management.

Concerns

With all the given benefits of RNM for tracking the illicit and treacherous activities, there are many concerns and risks being pointed out by human rights activists and other scientists. The agencies of human rights around the world have criticised RNM as a violation of basic human rights because it violates privacy and the dignity of thoughts and activities of life. Several countries have protested against it and refer to it as an attack on their human and civil rights. The scientists protesting against the use of RNM believe that people who have been implanted involuntarily become biological robots and guinea pigs for RNM activities in the guise of security. This is an important biological concern related to microchip implantation, which is a hidden technology using microwave radiations for the control of the mind.

Scientists believe that like leukemia and the cancerous risks posed by mobile phones which also emit microwaves, RNM can also pose similar threats to a subject's overall health as the heating effect of tissues with the speed of light is a known effect of high powered microwave and electromagnetic pulse weapons.

Thus, RNM remains a controversial technology which is being used in many countries for security maintenance and surveillance.

The uses for RNM technology as a policing tool is pure bullshit.. A government's use of this technology is in violation of every civil and human rights law in existence. Agencies like the NSA are using this technology to remotely access and manipulate the thoughts of millions American citizens in what can be described as nothing less than a modern day version of George Orwell's Big Brother on STEROIDS!

Citizens are being illegally interrogated within their own homes, without ever being charged with a crime, as their 4TH Amendment rights ar completely denied them!

In the United States, alone, thousands of people have already come forward to describe this technology and how it is being used to both illegally spy on them, while also manipulating their thoughts, as they are targeted for non consensual human experimentation.

See John St. Clair Akwei's lawsuit to learn more about this. Also my Website which I have listed the URL to below:

<http://www.9-11themotherofallblackoperations.blogs>

Also see the activist Websites: Freedom From Covert Harassment & Surveillance and FEDAME, both of which can be accessed through Google.

Jim 2 years ago

I should also note that you do NOT need to be implanted with a RFID, DNA or anyother type of chip to be targeted by the NSA for its Signals Intelligence surveillance of your person. The NSA targets you by your own unique bioelectromagnetic field, which enables NSA cryptologists track you by the NSA's Signals Intelligence EMF scanning network.

Please read John St. Clair Akwei's lawsuit against the NSA to learn more, as well as my own Website which documents this insidious technology in great detail.

Guest 2 years ago

You don't list any sources to back up your claim. I have read the Akwei vs. NSA in addition to this post and I don't believe in the idea that any human can be turned into walking, live, video cameras for the government. I don't believe that our thoughts can be determined either.

What you do have correct is the ability to send signals directly to the auditory cortex. This technology can be used to enroll people in "sleep deprivation programs". Especially effective when coupled with biosensors which project brain wave/sleep data to a remote source. If I hadn't been in the program myself, I wouldn't have believed this (sleep deprived since 3/2006).

I'm not a drug dealer, criminal, or outspoken anti-American. I just happened to be in the wrong place at the right time.

Anonymous 2 years ago

As a long-term target of this technology I am certain that it can be used to manipulate the thoughts of those being used for such non consensual human experimentation as has been attested to by hundreds of other people who are being illegally used as such subjects.

As such, there is no longer any question that the NSA and other agencies of U.S. Intel are committing serious crimes against American citizens, while denying them their right to due process of law.

A further sign of the New World Order and its intent to destroy the U.S. Bill of Rights.

Another problem is that Intel cyberstalks many of its targets over the Internet, with the express intention of posting remarks which are used in which to discredit the comments of legitimate targets of non consensual human experimentation, since the Intel community would not be around for very long if the American people learned that they had been brain fingerprinted by the NSA back in the 1970's, and electronically monitored since the early 1980's.

A true crime of treason and an executionable offense.

Guest 2 years ago

The NSA would never experiment on unwilling US citizens! That's what contracted firms are for. ;)

SquidWard 2 years ago

Anonymous is right. Jim is most certainly out to discredit the claims of the victims. His website appears legit at first, but is pure gobbledygook! There are plenty other bogus webs out there making ridiculous claims - all with intent to undermine the credibility of the real victims. I wonder who is sending them paychecks....

anonymous 2 years ago

9-11 the mother of all black operations is documents the NSA's illegal surveillance and use of American citizens for non consensual experimentation. It also cites former NSA operative John St. Clair Akwei's 1991 lawsuit against the NSA which describes the NSA's Signals Intelligence operations in detail.

It would seem that from the prior to post Intel's ops are on this site to discredit legitimate whistle blowers like Akwei, Marino, Tice and myriad others who are telling some very ugly truths about the NSA that the U.S. Intelligence community would rather not have told.

As for paychecks, Squidwad is likely collecting them from Intel for cyberstalking legitimate targets of these crimes, and likely posted the anonymous comment before his own.

Jim 2 years ago

AKWEI VS NSA is an excellent source. And you will notice that the article Akwei VS NSA supplies at least 40 additional references. Unfortunately the NSA has been very sneaky about illegally brain fingerprinting American citizens without our knowledge or consent. A terrible thing.

gloria 2 years ago

Where is the RNM located?

Johnny 24 months ago

If a non-believer would spend some time to research patents and such, you could see that the technology exists. Sure, the NSA and Police aren't going to admit using something that will financially break them, or an admission to violating the Constitution of the United States. They may however claim your part of a gang or terrorist organization when you aren't, so the Attorney General can file for a Secret Court Warrant to interrogate you in this manner.

I have personally heard the admission of an individual teaching the police in Missouri to use this technology. Chicago District of the FBI are wide boundaries that include Missouri. The abuse is phenomenal and will certainly cause a financial collapsation of the economy when it is fully exposed. A long time ago the CB Radio was a way the police communicated. Nowaday the police use a narrow bandwidth radio that can be directed to a subject with precise alignment with the use of GPS Satellite Systems that Chicago District uses now.

ALL WHO ARE INVOLVED IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF THIS TECHNOLOGY WILL ALL HAVE THERE PART IN THE LAKE OF FIRE AND BRIMESTONE!!! THIS IS EVIL AND DEMONIC AND POINTS TOWARDS SATAN HIMSELF. ALL WHO ARE RESPONSIBLE THINK THEY WILL GET AWAY WITH THIS CRIME OF HUMANITY , BUT LIKE THERE EVIL FATHER SATAN ARE LIVING WITHIN LIES AND DECEPTION. THEY WILL BE DESTROYED VERY SOON, AND WILL NOT GET AWAY WITH ANY OF THIS EVIL AND WICKEDNESS.

Many people may say that they don't believe in this. I am one who can say that it is true. I am a victim of this. Unfortunately, there is no one willing to admit in what has taken place. I have been forced out of my job, convinced to check myself into psychiatric hospitals. I have been followed and I have also had my brain tweaked repeatedly on a number of occasions when I wouldn't succumb to voices that were presenting what would happen to me if I didn't listen to them. So for me, I'm not in a state of denial but I am in a state of confusion because I don't know how to make these people stop and if I don't find some type of avenue to create a resolution to this I fear that this will continue for the rest of my life. I have spent the last three years building a case against these people. The worst part about it for me is that I am an HIV positive gay male which you'd think that maybe these people would show some remorse for what they have done. I have had my health insurance taken from me because of this fiasco and I have had to start my life over in another city and I am still being talked to on a daily basis. I started hearing these people more frequently after something short circuited in my brain which sounded like static on a television. Ever since then I have been tormented on a daily basis by the machine. I have had to listen to statements repeat themselves everyday for over a year. Their goal is to make you completely succumb to them by letting them take your sanity. Be thankful that this isn't happening to you. If anyone has any ideas for how I can attack this, blocking a signal or anything it is much appreciated.

I do believe in this. That millions of people are being monitored and that before you start thinking "I have nothing to hide." I say I have been monitored since I was 5 or 6 and that my Mother has also been Brian Printed.

"They" have a templet so to say. So if you start to see blue lights behind your eyes, hear intermittant voices, think you are being contacted by a religion, or that some one of interest like a star or political figure is interested in you socially know that you could be under attack.

This kind of torture was used in the south by the KKK to expel blacks. When do we hear about it? How long have you heard the joke about someone saying that they are being shot by micro waves from the satilights, those people went to the asylem or committed suicide and only the internet and shear numbers have made it common knowledge.

People have reported that they felt that they had been monitored in school and made to feel tired, irritable and forgetful. That at least three states have made Remote Neural Monitoring illegal with jail time to be serves if it is found you are using this technology one such state is Michigan.

This is a war being fought and the casualties are people thinking they need to go to the doctor, therapist, institutions and hospitals. "They" are selecting who is sucessful. And it is not the underprivlged. There is alot of money to be made on prescriptions for the mentally unabled and this technology is some how physical and very powerful as it pertains to the body.

Once you are hip to the material you might notice that this kind of Toutube is being used everywhere and not to find the criminals as first reported. But to create criminals. I read in "Rolling Stone" issue 11/12/2009, that Louis Bressler of the Fort Carson Murder Spree heard and was fighting off a demon as reported by his girlfriend. This struck me because I had known another person who said when they were attacked they had been made to hear demon voices.

"They" can use this technology to subliminally (sp?) suggest you to buy things, vote, that it is reportedly very hard to ascertain your inner voice from their's and that because of studies on the brain "They" can map out and make you do and say things very strange. That there are no secrets not even the lock to your safe your social security number how you love your wife or husband.

There has to be counter technology or there are no spys no state secrets. Science would all be shared. Some would have a very unfair advantage over the all. I do not support the use of Microwave Technology to be used.

I am very unhappy to know that this technology exists and to read about people possibly be made to lose sleep and then go committ crimes or not succeed in school or be molested via satilight or to think they are having a religious moment and good exists to be let down and know it is just a community pervert and peoples lives are being molded by weirdos. Sad.

The use of lexical patterns is used by supercomputer program, and of course advanced neural network that learns (somewhat), a adept person was known to figure out the patterns opposites of meaning, grammatical rules, etc.

The San Diego Skulls and Crossbones (UCSD) are known t have such a system at their disposal having stolen pass keys and technology from their CIA or NSA or military fathers and mothers without their knowledge. With such pass keys and knowledge of the systems it is thought that they even use the KH-9 satellites system without recognition by responsible authority that really un-authorized personnel are accessing such National systems and also through the U of C chain Universitys and their connections with the National Laboratorys like the Argonne National Laboratorys. See Non-Lethal Weapons initiative.

Ed 20 months ago

Seems that this situation also exists in Coronado, CA.

So... how about some inexpensive detectors and countermeasures? The adversary will only hide behind the "have you seen a psychiatrist" cover until admissable evidence is placed in front of a legal body with the clout to change the situation. And I wouldn't suppose that hanging from a rope or victim of a carbomb is what most judges or federal agents consider a reason to prosecute a case.

Also, the temptation for both sides to use this harassment must be great. What, then, to do? As a victim, I am equally ambivalent. Education and countermeasures seem lilt the only viable option.

I know that I am an involuntary victim of remote neural monitoring. I do not know who it is all together but I believe it has its origins with the U.S. Government and is being used on behalf of the State of Nebraska. Not only are my thoughts being read but they are making me here them. Full conversations and everything but only when I am alone which rules out schizophrenia all together. I am being harassed by everyone I meet here in Omaha including my family. Everyone has turned on me like something out of the invasion of the body snatchers or something. I would laugh but it is not really funny when it happens to you. They make me see hallucinations and also feel things. The main thing they are doing is invading my dreams. I know it is them because not only is the dream vivid but I haven't remembered a dream since I was 16 years old and ever since they have started I remember them all. Some kind of way they are using mind control tactics and subliminal messages to make me do things as well as just making me do them. They usually don't do this around people either. I guess they don't want to scare or hurt their agents of harassment. If you don't believe me check out <http://www.washingtonpost.com/wp-dyn/content/artic> and <http://searchwarp.com/swa310640.htm> They describe what's happening me exactly. He's had to revive me 5 times....they've sent death threats if I do any spirital or metaphysical healing they'll kill me. There' s huge magnetic pulse on the back of my neck he's trying to get off....they're CRIMINALS...should be in JAIL. Obama is responsible for this. One day he will be sorry he didn't do any of this and they do it to him and his family. It's heinous, they've attacked me every single night and day horribly to the point of not being able to listen, read, think, sleep, eat...you name it, they've done it so my body....they're horribly horrible CRIMINALS.....

At first I thought I myself was crazy, but then I discovered about this covert remote mental harrasment and torture by different arms of the intelligent community(NSA,CIA,etc) I didnt understand why they have victimized me and other innocent citizens but when I learned about the order of the illuminati it began to make sense. This is all about a mind control agenda on a global scale. This silent holocaust will only get worse with time unless there their is a collective conscious awakening. Americans must exercise what freedoms that still remain and take our government back before they gain full control! These are perilous times indeed!

IT'S HARD TO BELIEVE HOW ONE GENERATION CAN WITNESS THE WARNING ABOUT BIG BROTHER AS KID'S IN THE 60's, AND LIVE TO SEE IT ACTUALLY HAPPENING TO US TODAY. WOW, SO SOON !! AND SO OBVIOUS.

IF YOU'RE IN YOU'RE 50's, LIKE ME, WE ARE THE FIRST GENERATION TO HAVE TODAY'S REMOTE NEURAL COMMUNICATION, MONITORING AND CONTROL TECHNOLOGY UNFILTERED INTO OUR MINDS. THE ONLY ONES WITH ENOUGH FIRSTHAND KNOWLEDGE OF RECENT HISTORY TO ACT IN BEHALF OF JUSTICE REGARDING THE SNEAKY AND UNDERHANDED WAY OUR GOVERNMENT IS USING IT.

AND A VERY BIG RESPONSIBILITY TO FUTURE GENERATIONS IN THE USA, TO MAKE SURE WE DON'T ALLOW IT TO CONTINUE TO BE USED AS A TORTURE AND MIND CONTROL

WEAPON, OR TO SEGREGATE, PROGRAM AND PIT US AGAINST EACH OTHER IN THE UNITED STATES BY OUR OWN GOVERNMENT'S COVERT AGENCIES AND FEDERALLY CONTRACTED PRIVATE ENTERPRISES.

WE ALL NEED TO FIND OUT WHY THE PEOPLE WE PAY A LOT OF MONEY TO DO THE JOB OF GETTING TO THE TRUTH, UPHOLDING THE LAW, AND PROTECTING PEOPLE FROM THESE THINGS, ARE LYING BY REFUSING TO ADMIT THE PERPETRATORS EXISTS.

AND TURNING VICTIMS OF VIOLENT CRIMES OVER TO STATE MENTAL INSTITUTIONS, AND ALLOWING PERFECTLY SANE AMERICAN CITIZENS TO BE WAREHOUSED FOR LONG PERIODS OF TIME ILLEGALLY UNDER INCARCERATION.

UNFORTUNATELY THEY SEEM TO HAVE COME TO BELIEVE THEY CAN GET AWAY WITH ACTING LIKE BY BEING THE VERY IMPORTANT DOCTORS, PSYCHIATRISTS, OFFICERS OF THE LAW, FBI AGENTS, ELECTED OFFICIALS AND PILLARS OF THE COMMUNITY, THEY CAN JUST ACT LIKE IT WOULD BE A WASTE OF THEIR VERY VALUABLE TIME TO PURSUE THE DELUSIONS AND HALLUCINATIONS OF A PARANOID SCHIZOPHRENIC WHEN IT CONCERNS BEING CONFRONTED WITH THIS TECHNOLOGY.

AND WITH AN ATTITUDE THAT ANYONE THE POLICE CONSIDER ((WORTHY)) OF THE TRUTH AND PROTECTION REGARDING PROBLEMS WITH THE PEOPLE CONTROLLING

THIS TECHNOLOGY, WOULDN'T NEED TO COME TO THEM FOR HELP IN THE FIRST PLACE.

AND WHAT THEY'VE NEVER HAD TO GO THROUGH THEMSELVES, WILL ALL JUST MIRACULOUSLY DISAPPEAR AS SOON AS THEY RID THEMSELVES OF THE WORTHLESS SCUMBAG LOWLIFE DOPE HEADS BY HAVING THEM PUT IN PRISONS OR DECLARED INSANE AND COMMITTED IN MENTAL INSTITUTION'S SO THEY CAN CONTINUE PRETENDING THIS VERY REAL TECHNOLOGY PEOPLE'S LIVES ARE BEING RUINED WITH, DOESN'T EXIST LIKE THEY WERE OBVIOUSLY TOLD TO DO BY PEOPLE THEY HAVE SOMEHOW CAME TO BELIEVE DESERVE RESPECT.

THIS IS COMPLETELY UNACCEPTABLE IN AMERICAN SOCIETY.

THIS GOVERNMENT'S HAVING TO BE SNEAKY UNDERHANDED, MANIPULATIVE AND INTIMIDATING TO DO THESE THINGS.

AND I'LL BE VERY INTERESTED TO FIND OUT JUST EXACTLY HOW MANY OTHER PEOPLE THEY'VE DONE THIS TO AFTER WE'VE HAD A COMPLETE REEVALUATION OF EVERY AMERICAN CITIZEN UNFORTUNATE ENOUGH TO FIND THEMSELVES IN THE CLUTCHES OF THESE CO-CONSPIRATOR PUPPETS CALLING THEMSELVES DOCTORS AT SOUTHERN NEVADA ADULT MENTAL HEALTH.

AND EVERY OTHER STATE MENTAL INSTITUTION IN THE COUNTRY IF I CAN WAKE PEOPLE UP TO WHAT THEIR REALLY UP TO. I'M A FIRST HAND VICTOM OF THIS AND ALOT MORE.

once when broadcasts were bouncing from one electronic item to another i was using a digital voice recorder to record what i was hearing when it was used as an improvised electronic harassment device itself...i rewound it and sure enough it had captured the same statement i had heard, but without the synthesized terroristic sound...also lookup emf protection....certain lined fabrics muffle the sound...works best covering your whole body....a statistical study of this could be proven...also paint is available, but too expensive for anyone suffering this to afford probably...i covered one member of a "federal Company" with this fabric and imagine that? the police showed up and said someone had dialed 911, but this person didn't have a phone..ha ha ....i have been investigating this for years and that is pretty much how i came to be a victim...some things they just cannot keep their mouths shut about...ha,ha,...

then they offer you peace to do their work...ha ha ...and on disability you have all the necessities and excuses you need to do it....this is human trafficking, forced labor, slavery, fraud, malpractice, torture, rape, etc....everyone is afraid to speak out...sometimes innocents are targeted for plausible deniability purposes...they can give you a heart attack...talk about intimidation....i can prove it with support from unknown investigators...why is the press so silent on this? my liberty has been assaulted,,,i could go on and on...anyone know a lawyer that works on these kinda cases?

Something is going on, but who's to say it's the NSA doing the non consensual experiments? Whatever it is, it appears government sanctioned. Some of us survivors from previous ridiculous unethical experiments got on the electronic harassment list just to discredit us. The weird thing is that it's almost completely ignored by the very people who should be concerned.

What's sad too is that the groups associated with help for this are pretty much "cointelproed," making it that much harder for any efficient activism. The end of this has to come from the inside. One can only hope that people inside the government with morals, ethics and balls will step forward and say stop. This is not national security. This is bs.

another anony 16 months ago

I thought of another point. Even if supercomputers are used to "decode" the brain there are two essential problems that boil down to this: all science is limited by human interpretation. That is, someone human decides what's important and how to program the computer and someone human has to read the output. It's the same blindspot that has caused such arrogance in the sciences.

To be a victim of whatever kind of nonconsensual experimentation is doubly offensive when one doesn't even respect the science/scientists behind it. The same goes to the behaviorists who feel that if the view us as our "animal" selves they'll get far in understanding human behavior. They don't really even understand the other animals. Someone should write a blog on scientific narcissism.

What if the conditions of science today is to ask God to finally seperate Good from Evil. How?,when we are living the goodness by words and practice,a righteous pattern or 'WAYS' or systems is all we need to confirm the true meaning of existence. Selection process from these good guys will be compiled, stored and directed towards all attempts to neutralise our eternal advantage. We all know the difference between the two but pressure of life choices hands us over to evil, but with powerful "FEELING" systems the soul of the GOOD will make 'NO WAY' to the devil much more relevant at all confrontation points of (devilish, deviate, divide, delude, devolved, etc.)

i have no idea what they want but they are targetting soldiers such as myself as for my knowledge its a machine that records all your surroundings and people you meet every day as if they are making connections. they have something up there sleeve as if they looking for some one. music is a big part in this it seems to drive them crazy i tell them to confront me but they know thats not a good idea they are scare guns guns guns and more guns will save us always keep one thats a fact. remind yourself every day that they are there isolate as much possible the mexican mountains is my safe zone when i get there i have my brain back i promise youll feel the same. this is something the goverment has fault for we all know that. we are special keep that in mind stop trying to convince people to beleive there not going too till experience it themselves. tell them guero is going to kill them for a whole day and youll see they will act even more scare of us we are powerfull this our memorys our minds our brains and they robbed us from them we have to stop this on our own music more music beats them at there own game we are not crazy dont let them fool you by not bothering you anymore they are there and they are real note evry situation and every person you meet try to make the connection yourself then note the people they knoe and you will see how big this is every person has three screens one for our memorys two for our life as in what you are doing right now three as for what you feel and image map it out and youll understand im here for all of you and im not gonna stop tell them that all the time guero guero guero guero guero is coming and they will stop they are scare already thoughts you have a regular basis are fake go with gut instinct all the time. sleeping is the hardest because they are the ones that make those dreams i had one dream for months over and over dont worry our numbers are growing and we are getting stronger be happy and isolate as much possible dont let them finish what they started thats there mission to have a link with every mind possible this guero from chicago and note they use signals antennas make it stronger dejavu is a big factor in this game when something tells you you seen it trust me you have driving is a big hazard avoid it as much possible you are not alone we are in this together be careful and dont forget there day will come regardless technology moves fast so note every thing since they started a keep it safe in details okay they gonna die for messing with us be proud of yourself you are part of there destruction and they know it thats why they have messed with you.

I thought this article was great.

There's a historic investigative process that I'm resolving in london, which I could greatly advance using RNM if the police are brave enough in accepting that people telling the truth could remember the truth and create a digital image from recollecting a historic experience.

Im sure that involuntary implanting has been a way that unscrupulous people frightened from witnesses telling the truth, thought they were minimising the chance for people believing witnesses. But there is the thought that what goes around comes around and with that, the possible chance that these same technologies could be an answer in how witnesses prove that the history was the truth.

I am a survivor. I was attached involuntary to the worldwide SWEATS system. I think this Remote Neural Monitoring stuff is technically operated by addressing (HAARP? Alaska and Ohio based) DNA/RNA of humans, but who cares. It works. Being a surveillant has both good things and bad things: lonely ppl can benefit by feeling not lonely anymore. Because of a sweet live follower companion they hear. And the targeted bad guys can commit a crime by being provoked in their head, and that is what we don't want but it happens. But in that way I can imagine it is shocking to see someone die you perpretate the brains (and thus private life) off.

Good luck with your personally use of this system. Roma Est. Bye big brother.

I have to say, in all my reading, I haven't come across anyone with objective views and experiences such as mine.

I'll start by saying that at the outset of being inducted into the mind control program/network, my life was essentially taken apart and ruined. I spent most every second of every day with artificially induced anxiety/pounding heartbeat, occasionally was hit with enough radiation to make me pass out (I'm a very athletic individual).

However, about three months into things began to change, as if I had somehow "graduated" my initiation. The system began to placate me. We are a telepathic people/race now. The program allows me to communicate with my girlfriend and friends telepathically. I can with nothing more than my own thoughts communicate with, influence feelings of, induce harm upon and data mine past life experiences of people around me. The system revolves around human brain entrainment, to prepare human beings for future transcendence into Singularity. Instead of inducing pain the system induces intense waves of artificial pleasure and calm over me like nothing I've ever experienced.

I'm confident that a far larger majority of our people than most of you think are already on this network, and are being placated like me so as not to talk about the existence of said network.

Anyone else have experiences similar to mine?

Dear Friends,

I am going through a big problems similar to what is described above.

I am not sure to whom I can seek help, I seek assistance. My e mail will be cute5050@yahoo.com sorry my email is not so professional and my English is not perfect.

I was in Switzerland, did my business research, then became unconscious not sure for how long, I was in the holy ground then when i got attacked by this wave on my head, all I know is that I was going to India to visit the holy pilgrims, meanwhile (suspecting) friends and relatives were gathering informations to solve the problem from Edwin and Jeffrey Anrada (Philippine who hold Swiss Passport), I am Malaysian ( was questioned also by don't know who are the people suspecting the Government) United State and the EU Organization (Suspected was involved)

I am not a criminal, almost all my Business Ideas was taken out used by many media, movies by few artist or so called singers are singing to promote some ideas of mine, and movie artist or directors using few ideas from mine.

I was badly pained by this wave, I often got this I don't know what to call them, like something poking my heart, kidney, livers, stomach, brains, head, back bones, basically my whole body.

I am still sending mails to a friend who claimed to sponsor me in solving my problems, and suspected to collect earning from that or funds or investment... I am not sure... there were psychological question put onto me... he managed to form a team to solve many problems using so called communication using no mobiles but my brains through satellite connections.

I am sending some mails, but his responds are different like he doesn't know that... what ever... I still send mails to many link or up date him my mails just in case if I am murdered by this wave.

I am not sure if you can help me... I am seeking your help, please mail to the mentioned email add.

I do not think Remote Neural Monitoring is a good tool for Police Work. The Monitoring is only as good as the Monitorer behind the machine. Monitoring can and has been used to cause disease and damage to the environment. Think about it is only radioactive. It's a microwave laser beam aimed at your head. Monitors have used the Beam to cause innocent peoples to hurt themselves and others. Mind reading can not replace community. If you want less crime give more. Those monitors and it could be anyone even other governments kill people and cause un-natural mental disorders. I just get really upset when some fool who has not been monitored and slandered thinks it's just "Mindreading." It is much more dangerous than that. And there is no standard. You can't complain to the police or FBI if it is done poorly. No secrets disclose monitoring to the public so you are being monitored improperly you can get help. Look around at the children with little or no hair and strange shaped heads. People with wide parts in their hair. Monitoring is here. Acne. Flu. Mental illness. Heart disease. all can be caused by Monitoring.

i would like to say, i do believe that people can be remotely controlled by others using these chips.

i have to say i'm one of those. i dont know how i dont know why, they implanted a chip inside me, but believe this, they really control everything and change it. your habits, personality, concentration.... everything. i not paranoid or crazy, i tested that already.

i have only one question, how can you get these chips or this controlling out of your life?

please can some one help me!!! P.S. i live in Germany it can be used for lots of things i believe it has to do with training that can have to do with endurance, causing fatigue otherwise can be called harassing to the patient, subject. think medical study signed on and next thing you know your life is under someones control but you had no way of knowing what the study was about infact you probably just signed up for an english 101 class and over the course of time became more and more in "training" "voodoo" "mind is being trained" removal of past issues,

Voice-to-Skull is a radio that can target one person at a time. The person hears the voice-to-skull operators speak whether they want to or not, without the aid of any chips or receiving device. Some people have experienced night and day verbal harassment by this technology which can last years sometimes.

A helpful tool for this is to listen to a jumble of sounds, such as a mix of 6 radios found below. This drowns out the voices of harassers, making them just one voice in a crowd.

This website has a mix of 6 radios for victims suffering from electronic harassment:

<http://www.raven1.net/audio/6radios-lo.mp3>

Another simple tool is to listen to 2 or more radios at once, or to keep the T.V. on at the same time as a radio, making a similar jumble of sound.

Taking a simple sleeping pill at night is helpful in combating nightly noise regardless of the source.

Mind you, these 'cures' only work for those suffering artificially induced 'auditory hallucinations'. People suffering from real ones need traditional medication.

If this happens to you, and even if it hasn't, write to your Senator and Representative, educating them on the issue, and urging them to ban nonconsensual human experimentation, and to rid us of psychological weapons. At least ask them to create an avenue for victims to safely complain of abuse, and a human rights committee to look into this!

I have had experiences with a device similar to a neurophone (i.e. a mindreading technology). I found something curious. The operators of the machinery could 'hear' words thought, and 'see' pictures, but did not necessarily have the remotest idea what those meant to the thinker. People's thoughts can be scattered, we are capable of thinking one thing and doing another, or acting without thinking at all. Also the recordings of those thoughts can be easily edited to mean just the opposite of what they seemed to be. This really ruins the tool as far as national security goes.

Social cognitive psychologists named Dr. Matthew Lieberman and Dr. Naomi Eisenberger (at UCLA) have been using this type of technology on un-consenting individuals for over 7 years now! They have been using it to unethically obtain their scientific data to their social cognitive neuroscience research experiments and to illegally jump ahead of their competition. They use it for unethical neuro-marketing research, ways of persuasion and aid in developing mind reading technologies. They also deliberately cause pain to their un-consenting subjects to monitor the harmful damaging effects that extreme amounts of long-term physical and emotional pain does to the body's immune system, health, brain and well-being!

They use it to illegally and immorally monitor their un-consenting and un-knowing research subjects as they force them to interact in extremely distressing and harmful real-time social situations that, UCLA's Dr. Matthew Lieberman and Dr. Naomi Eisenberger, had maliciously manipulated in ways that will cause their research subjects to experience extreme amounts of social distress! They have used this unethical tactic, to acquire their fraudulent scientific data that was pointed out in the ongoing on-line debate called 'The Scan Scandal'!

A company called, 'North Vector Inc.' uses this type of technology in their line of work! They are doing research and development with this type of technology and conducting cold war style field testing to develop different ways that they can use this technology to covertly harm and break a person down.

North Vector Inc. is located in Menlo Park, Calif.. It is owned and ran by ex-navy seals named Chuck O'Connor, Ross Hangebrauk and Geoffrey Baehr, who worked for Sun Microsystems. Gregg Andrew Hurwitz is an author and a good friend of theirs who hangs out with them to get information he can use in for his novels and scripts for the series V on prime time Television ect..

Remote Neural Monitoring details:

It is no longer necessary to use electrodes to monitor brain function at a distance. After Delgado's experiments in the 1950s, began to use a model for EEG biometrics at a distance that allows the individuation and activation of mental functions to different individuals, and distance, without electrodes. Details are on this site that deals with the physical control of the mind so scientific and objective. <https://sites.google.com/site/controlmental>

First of all this is a major crime ring/rape ring and anyone this is happening to needs to take the situation seriously. We have all been lied to and have believed this is the government or government agents. It is not, it is a crime ring and all who have had this happen to them need to report to their nearest military recruiting station in person or if not possible by phone to be protected as law enforcement has been unsuccessful in responding fast enough or being aware of the technology. Please go to the military asap. They made the technology and take the situation seriously. I myself went to a recruiting station and reported it as a bluetooth implanted behind my ear. A soldier was posted at my near my residence immediately.

Like any technology it can be used for good or evil. Obviously also like most technologies it is first being used for evil. Usually when a technology is released there is no stopping it. I think that it should be released to the public domain immediately. The public domain can use it for communications, education and psychology/health. The public domain will also allow creation of counter measures and personal prevention methods which is why this is obviously being kept a secret. ALL TRANSMISSIONS CAN BE STOPPED.

I think one of the major issues facing this technology being used for crime prevention is that it is: a violation of one's rights not to incriminate themselves and many more, what one thinks is many times not what one does (ever think of hitting your boss or a coworker,) and it would be used a "pre-crime" basis which is absolutely ludicrous and our criminal judicial system is very much designed for crimes committed. There is VERY reasonable doubt that someone would not do something they have not yet done. In short: release it to the public sphere and when laws are re-designed to accommodate such conflicts then it she be revisited. The fact that it's released for "crime prevention" first is a sign of our times.

PS: Does anyone know if this thing can detect emotions? If not I think it would another big time downfall.

M 2 months ago

There are some things you won't be capable of doing anything about your problems. I just want to say this...All of this can be broken down to make sense. I'm not the one to answer but there will NEVER be any Judicial area that will acknowledge this kind of mind minuplation, it says so. So do something productive and keep busy it helps keeps your mind too busy for anything to bother you. Hang in there - if you are having these problems your going to have them the rest of your life. So, don't be angry it doesn't help your situation. Put it behind you and stay away from thinking about it. Again, keep busy and rest only when someone is with you. You should NEVER discuss, talk, or write anything about what you are thinking or you will be labeled by the government as a Paranoid Schizophrenic which in some cases can be helpful.

I believe there is another factor here. It is thought that a chip can be implanted within, and given a number as in a phone number, accessed as such, and then it is sold for money. It can be used as a game to harrass, or if people know the right people, can be used to help that individual achieve their goals in life. Beware of people and family needing money and those that are jealous of you.

Debbie 2 months ago

The microchips are probably in everyone now and it is not big brother, it is the American Mafia controlling everyone. They see everything every body does from underground. They are using the Technology to TERRORIZE people and make their victims vulnerable. Schizophrenia is not a mental disorder, it is Mafia CRIMES, the Mafia playing God, evil God, they've fooled everyone into thinking God was good. The churches have been supporting an evil society underground where they are abusing, torturing, and mutilating innocent people for Eternal Life to TERRORIZE their MONEY GENERATOR SLAVE to GENERATE MONEY, robbing it from the rest of the world.

These gangsters told me about TERRORIZING people, abducting people, STAGING INCIDENTS ans ACTS, Sophisticated Technology beyond that of normal society, and chips implanted in their hands which allows them access into their secret underground society. Now that they are TERRORIZING me, through their Sophisticated Technology by spying through my brain they are showing and telling me they have Mind Control Technology on everybody. The Bible talks about the 'Mark of the Beast' and it will be had by everyone, in nonsymbolic terms the 'Mark' is Mind Control, and the 'Beast' is the Mafia. These are the worlds most wanted TERRORISTS, STAGING EVENTS and ACTS that are causing a cataclysmic, catastrophic, economic crisis.

They are Controlling peoples minds so that they can get away with their CRIMES. They told me about STAGING DEATHS about 11 and 12 years ago, and about 2 years ago I realized they had STAGED my mother's death about 23 years ago and abducted her underground and have been torturing her all this time, and using their Mind Control Technology they forced my Uncle to hear my mom getting beaten up to make him GENERATE A LOT OF MONEY FAST. This story is actually Revelations in the Bible which is PREMEDITATED CRIMES to rob the system, sucking up all the MONEY. They need to be stopped before the economic crisis gets any worse. There should be a way of disabling their Mind Control Technology so people can have their own mind again.

This Technology can see inside everyone's mind and can communicate with them too, but is really used to TERRORIZE victims because it exposes people's private information. This is a violation of human rights. They also say they can erase something out of someone's memory. This is dangerous Technology in the hands of wicked people.

and everyone knows, as much as people do not talk about it, everyone knows about the high tech survalence, and the criminals know too. People are being framed, identiy theft, and people are being radiated to death for somethings that are not their fault. I suspect i am the victum of such fraud.

There are nations that want to see America destroyed, or are planning war against us, and are using this defense as a weapon against our brightest and best, even our political leaders are being framed and as a result being electricuted, given electrical lobotomies, as an act of terror, by countries seeing what they can do to turn our technology against us.

I'm a vicim of Remote Neural Monitoring, i guess i'm new at this since i've only experienced a full blown attack for about 5 months which apparently is nothing compared to some other victims who have experienced this torture for decades. It is true that they monitor everything you do and they don't let their presence be known to you until they feel they have every neural response mapped out, in other words they won't start speaking to you until they feel they can really screw your brain up. Here is some information i've gathered on the Internet that is pretty vital if you are to survive their games; this information includes both gangstalking tactics and remote neural monitoring mind games.

Once they see what you respond to emotionally they will fabricate 'conversational' scenarios based on events or topics they know will capture your attention enough to distract you from the system's influence. Everything these people say to you is a lie and they really don't care about truth or accuracy they will begin to fabricate 'subconscious responses' which they will pretend are indicators of honesty/dishonesty, positive recognition, anxiety, etc, and they will use 'impulse injection' to convince you that the fabricated responses are your own.

What these people do is purely deceptive, there is no valid or even good reason for any of it. Do not allow them to deter or manipulate you for any reason.

What they do is a game of deception and manipulation, nothing more. Do not accept anything they say as truth and do not acknowledge anything the system interrogates you about as truth. The system will take random bits of anything it captures through your senses and fabricate stories which they will use to harass and interrogate you with no intention other than to distract and torture you into submission [to the system's influence].

The group can begin by saying the individual's name, specific words, different sounds, and use other distracting actions to attract the individual's attention. The targeted individual realizes that the group is using some form of harassment and begins to listen to the group around him.

Using indirect communication the group can insult the target, attack the individual's dignity, integrity, or self-esteem, threaten the victim, ask questions, and continue to use specific words and sounds to attract the targeted individual's attention.

Degrading themes can be not only disturbing to a person, but also threatening. They are used to attack a persons dignity, self-image, self-esteem, induce stress, and often used in combination with negative conditioning.

A group can try to make a targeted individual form degrading and perverse images by using combinations of words, descriptions, sounds, and actions. When degrading themes are used on individuals, the targeted individual can suffer from a psychological disorder that some psychologists have termed "intrusive thoughts".

Also, as stated on the first page, insinuations, even though they are false, can have different affects on an individual. Insinuations of being a pedophile, a homosexual, a criminal, a liar, etc. Is a form of attack on a person's self-image, dignity and integrity, self-esteem, and can induce stress. One reaction that the victim can have when targeted is to have the feeling of "feeling guilty of something". Pedophilia is at the top of the list in hated things in our society and being labeled a pedophile has serious consequences, it would therefore explain why it is so often claimed to be used.

The psychological manipulation of, the pretense or deception of, wanting a false confession; the threat of wanting false or pretense of wanting false confessions, to prevent exposure.

In other words, wanting or using the deception of wanting a false confession has the opposite or reverse effect, the victims ceases all communication or cooperation.

You would believe or think that torture is used to obtain the truth, but it's actually used in many cases to do the opposite.

People can be led to believe things that are false in order to manipulate them and even to try to drive them to suicide or to harm others.

For example a person can be led to believe that they are about to be fired or constantly on the verge of being fired to induce stress, paranoia, and insecurity. Another example is to lead the person to believe that they will be sued or going bankrupt, will be falsely accused resulting in prison time, will never be employed again, or lose their spouse.

Used with degrading themes the victim can be led to believe that they will be labeled a pedophile or used as a prostitute. That the perpetrators control the world and that the victim must obey.

When you are scared, angry, insecure, or uncertain your brain does not function as well.

When opponents engage in verbal dialogue they will sometimes try to intimidate, provoke, or make each other uncertain.

- One example is to try to throw your opponent on the defensive or psychological defensive. (linked to intimidation or manipulation)

- Another example is to use an ambiguity to make the person uncertain.
- Another example is to use subtle attacks to try to provoke anger, intimidate, fear, and uncertainty.

Anger: Anger Makes You Powerful or Stronger?

When psychological warfare is waged on someone, attempts are made to provoke reactions that are harmful to the victim such as anger.

Anger is the preferred reaction of choice because of the negative effects it has on the victims health and body such as increased adrenaline, cortisol levels, and blood pressure; and the victim can be psychologically manipulated or conditioned to react with anger or deceived into believing that this makes them more powerful or stronger.

They will try to give you the impression that you are being evaluated based on random criteria related to your personal goals and begin running a routine which will again use the above mentioned methods of injection and blocking to convince you that you that they are controlling your mind/memory when in reality the system is controlling the 'fabricated or falsified stream' while interfering with [overriding] your recollection. Once you become dependant on the system's output (or they believe your responses to it are consistent) they will begin to fabricate 'subconscious responses' which they will pretend are indicators of honesty/dishonesty, positive recognition, anxiety, etc, and they will use 'impulse injection' to convince you that the fabricated responses are your own. If you are unaware of this constant manipulation the system will begin to shape your thoughts and behavior. They will use this to [attempt to] restrict your thoughts and behavior by blocking [interfering with] your memory while these suggestions are being provided – the interference is triggered and can be activated at will by the attackers.

Thou then who hast trials and troubles, rejoice because of them, for in them is Strength, and by their means is a pathway opened unto that Light-

No matter what they put you through don't ever lose hope, if you believe in God stay faithful and never give up, i can assure you that you will get stronger with time, you just have to keep your head up and don't let them get to you. Remember that nothing lasts forever, also try to work up the courage to analyze everything they do and write about it on the internet to help other victims who are going through this, together we stand, divided we fall.

More tips, if you can try to stay away from hospitals and mental institutions.. they use these facilities for mind programming and harrasment for their vicimts. I've experienced a lot of messed up things in the past 5 months; i went to the hospital and a mental institution, i've lost my apartment, my girlfriend, my car, i moved twice to different states and now i'm living in Colombia.. they're still attacking me daily. 5 months ago i didn't know anything about gangstalking but i noticed that i was being followed pretty much everywhere i went and harrased in subtle ways. The harrasment gets worse with time but you just have to learn to tune it out. Selling your things and moving away isn't always the best option, they actually want you to do that because then you'll have less money and you'll be even easier pray, take it from me, i've literally lost everything i worked so hard for. If the harrasment gets so bad to the point where you must move away please don't waste your money on material things but instead save it and keep it with you if you can where ever you choose to go, remember that these people want to break everything that makes you human and for that they must strip you away from everything you know, they want to take you out of your comfort zone, make you go bankrupt, break your mind and eventually manipulate every action you do. Another thing to remember is that you can't even trust your body anymore, you will have mixed feelings and sensations that are artificial but feel almost real so while you're being monitored you might as well believe that everything you feel isn't real no matter what it is; The best way i can describe this phenomom is like the copy and paste option you see on microsoft word, once you feel anything, whether it is fear, excitement, sorrow, happiness, they can re-create it in you whenever they choose but they will first confuse you so that it seems real. do not believe anything they say to you, no matter what it is. Try to tune them out and keep busy, they will twist anything you say or do in order to get into your brain so always remain neutral. I've also experienced very vivid nightmares in which they use the copy and paste emotion lameness so remember that nothing is real and that it is all manufactured by them and their twisted minds so once you wake up the next day disregard everything you experienced the night before or else they will use it to torture you throughout the day, remember that anything that gets to you they will use to torture you so remain as neutral as possible no matter what kind of manipulation techniques they use on you. Stay strong and God Bless you all name them. talk about them openly. tell others about them....start yourself a blog and share the instances. When the bots begin using your own words via internet, tell about it....use the names they go under.

use them when it suits u. ie. feed them on occasion, to get that which You want. Not forever...put them on a time limit....

if you don't know if is it you or them thinking, stop. Look to yourself, rationalize; why do you feel the way that you feel at that moment, generalize and personalize; bring them out of the closet. Learn to know yourself and yourself only. They will tell you that they are your Christ Presence, or...that they can and will teach you to embody your own; if this is true then make them show you that they know how to embody Their own Christ presence. Let them show you that they can work the things that they are wanting you to do. Demand from them a miracle. Demand that they be open with you. Demand that they become as open as you have been.

Feed them, only if it feeds you in return....and i am speaking of emotionally, and only emotionally, because they will lie to you and tell you that they can give all kinds of material things, but it is just that... a lie.

If they want you to KNOW something, laugh at them, fuck them off and shun them...

They will make you believe that YOU need this in order to survive. That you will need this in the coming years to be able to communicate mentally with-out the knowledge of the enemy. They want you to think that they are emissaries of light....make them prove it, because basically, they are just using you as food. Every one of them, to feed their own emotions and soul self because they themselves are empty. Any more, ask

DKB 5 weeks ago

An example of what I am talking about was when, after my brother had shot himself and I'd moved into his apartment, I heard in my head, felt in my body to 'get a gun, put it to your head, pull the trigger". This is something that I would never do. Even if I were to take my own life, it would not be with a gun, and I knew this. I KNEW that this was not my own thought. I forced the thought down, which can be difficult, and it takes knowing yourself; it takes vigilantly getting to know yourself and what you are about, and refusing to be played in that way.

I feel for those who find that even their body is being physically manipulated by these tactics.

To know if this is what occurring in your life, begin journaling, begin searching yourself, going back through all of you childhood and on up; be a strict psychoanalyst for yourself, and just slamming those unruly thoughts that are so destructive, that would influence you to physically harm yourself or others and deny deny deny them the right to make your decisions for you. Unless you actually find those decisions helpful and beneficial...let them know that if they want to control you then they better give you something that is worth doing. They WILL use you to get across political concepts and beliefs....make sure these beliefs are your own BY GETTING to KNOW YOU. Let them know that YOU come first when it comes to decisions and the direction of your life.

The voices? I just talk back, or fill my head with other things, or sick my dog on them. These voices have kept her busy at night for hours because they come from the outside, not the inside. But I refuse to listen unless they have really good advice. In other words, i do not want to cut off my nose to spite my face, or throw the baby out with the bathwater as they say.

I expect them to care about me if they are going to be so intimately involved in my life and there really is no physical way to stop this..., and their caring is going to have to show in ways that are obvious...no more of this, you won't like it but it's good for you shit.

Show ME.

DKB 5 weeks ago

When I said that they come from outside not inside, this does not mean always...some of the thoughts are inside, as though they are my own...I treat them ALL as subconscious and either let them just flow right out like one would do in meditation, or shut them up when they become a nuisance or something that I know in my heart I would not do even if they were mine...begin in your own subconscious to subdue those F&*^ing monsters... treat them as your own and say no...unless you know that it IS to YOur benefit

Ok guys here's what I know are facts.

1. they cannot target you from a satellite the range limit is about 300 ft unless there is a base station around which is actually pretty large. It'll fit in an SUV though.
2. Yes they can speak to and see what you see.
3. No they cannot implant images into your mind. They can manipulate your mind to pull up any image from a movie, dream, fantasy, etc and make you think its real.
4. when you think its like talking and when you talk its like a whisper to them.
5. Music disrupts some of the transmission of current thought.

That's all folks if your experiences fall outside this realm you probably should seek other help.

Right now I am doing some research on mindcontrol and how the government can manipulate the social media. I find everyones comments very intriguing. If these comments are true why not go directly to the source or seek help? I will further comment later.

I started experiencing this in the 90's one day. Then 5 years ago, it became voices for 2 months. It went away for 4 years, and now the last year it has been non-stop voices, infiltration of my dreams, thoughts that are not my own, 2 unwanted/unwarranted robotic suicide attempts that I had no control over, etc. My daughter seems to be experiencing the same thing. I know who is doing it, but why is beyond me...except it appears to be government control. My husband was actually paralyzed 5 years ago, and I believe it was no accident. These brainchips have that capability. The voices tell me they have taken control of government heads, and our whole political system. We worry about terrorists, and we have it right here as in a police run country!!

Hello Sir, many victim has been telling it works via setelites, microwave, v2k and ....and....and...

I am a victim for almost 35 years...still unable to figure out how this damn " sh.....t" things work. it cannot be few people doings this.....it MUST be very big organization doing it with a lot of financial backup.

Every one knows how brain communicate using nerves to detect pain and sensation on all over part of the body. Only brains gives the idea what the sensation all about.

This technology was used on me when I was in jail. I couldn't believe it and I had somehow forgotten about what had happened to me, and didn't realize much of what had really happened for a long time.

Jail guards are driving people to suicide by starving themselves to death. They read your thoughts with these devices and yell your thoughts over and over to make you crazy. They program you when you're sleeping, and implant false memories into your head. They can make you think that you committed 1000 murders while you were sleepwalking. They can make you think and believe anything they want you to believe. They can use this technology alone to have you screaming in pain, and they can even manipulate you into having a heart attack. They can even go the other way and cause you to achieve orgasm. I'm not just going by what I've read. I'm going by experience, and by seeing what the jail guards were doing to others.

I now forget things that nobody would forget, I have the most horrible flashbacks and words repeating through my mind non-stop, it makes me sick, I may not sleep for days, or at least only a couple hours a night. As soon as I am about to perform a very simple task, I feel like I can't do it, and next thing I know I've been sitting in a trance for 12 hours. I've seen guards make inmates wake up and dance sing, dance around, and go right back to sleep. I've seen them make inmates forget where they even were, what year it was, and what their name was. It only gets worse. I assure you, this technology is real and that it really does cause the damage that people claim it causes, and then some...
