REVEALED: Google co-founder Larry Page has bought at least FOUR private islands including one next to Richard Branson's Necker - having vowed to test wacky tech ideas in 'safe places'

It's been revealed that Google co-founder Larry Page owns at least four private islands speculated to be 'safe' testing grounds for wacky tech ideas he isn't ready to launch publicly. According to legal documents obtained by Business Insider the billionaire purchased Hans Lollik and its smaller neighbouring island, Little Hans Lollik, in 2014 for $23 million. The publication claims an investigation into Page and fellow cofounder Sergey Brin's revealed he's been quietly acquiring a network of islands across the globe from the Caribbean to the South Pacific. Larry steals his tech ideas from others.
