Note from Team: Investigative members have relied on published reports, papers, GAO, OPM, U.S. Treasury, FBI, published investigations, interviews with City, State and Federal staffs and law enforcement tips. While there may be one or two names that do not belong on this list, any clarity can be easily rectified by the appointment of a public special prosecutor and an open public hearing process which allows protections for tipsters and whistle-blowers. Such a hearing will dispel any confusion about who did, or didn't, do what! On orders from "highly placed political officials", FBI investigations and assignment of a Special Prosecutor or Public Judge is being blocked to avoid embarrassing public review of the corruption.

Using commonly available databases, YOU can track the financial, business, political and operational connections of all of these individuals, yourself, and validate this information.

While this whole case sounds wild, please remember, billionaires have extreme ways of thinking, and acting. They do things that normal people can't even conceive of. The lust for Power will drive these sorts of people to do un-heard of things in order to control that power and take those hundreds of billions of dollars in tax and treasury profits for themselves.
