

The “CleanTech Crash” Embezzlement Of Taxpayer Money Via Stock Market Fraud and Political Corruption

- Silicon Valley operated the largest crony payola scam, at the expense of taxpayers, in U.S. history
- This crime was reported, in writing, with millions of pages of evidence, to FBI Director James Comey and U.S. Attorney General and they covered it up.

THE COVER-UP :

This crony political corruption scam was a felony criminal embezzlement crime that has been covered up by corrupt officials. Here is the proof of these crimes and their cover-ups: Obama, Google, Gawker/Gizmodo Media, John Doerr, Larry Page, Steve Westly, Steve Rattner, Eric Schmidt, Elon Musk and their gang, conspired To Put Hit-Jobs On Americans And Now We Have The Proof

By ProPublica Alliance

A Conspiracy Theory is no longer a theory when you have the facts in hand.

Nobody can deny the fact that Barack Obama, Google, the Gawker/Gizmodo tabloid facade and Elon Musk are all the primary financiers and beneficiaries of the manipulations of the DNC. All of these parties even admitted this in their own federal financial filings.

Even if you did not look at their own filings, or the massive sets of evidence files we now have in hand, each of these parties own words prove that assertion. You can see them verify this in thousands of TV and newspaper interviews.

New York and California State Judges and Senators mostly work for the DNC. Even if you did not look at their own filings or the massive sets of evidence files we now have in hand, each of these parties own words prove that assertion.

The energy industry is the third-largest industry in the United States (according to “The Energy Industry in the United States”. commerce.gov. USA Government. Retrieved 28 June2013.) This market is expected to have an investment of over $700 billion over the next two decades according to Selectusa.

The energy sector accounts for 4.6% of outstanding leveraged loans, compared with 3.1% a decade ago, while energy bonds make up 15.7% of the $1.3 trillion junk bond market, up from 4.3% over the same period.[2]

Since energy plays an essential role in industrial societies, the ownership and control of energy resources plays an increasing role in politics. At the national level, governments seek to influence the sharing (distribution) of energy resources among various sections of the society through pricing mechanisms; or even who owns resources within their borders. They may also seek to influence the use of energy by individuals and business in an attempt to tackle environmental issues.

The most recent international political controversy regarding energy resources is in the context of the Iraq wars. Some political analysts maintain that the hidden reason for both 1991 and 2003 wars can be traced to strategic control of international energy resources.^[12] Others counter this analysis with the numbers related to its economics. According to the latter group of analysts, U.S. has spent about $336 billion in Iraq^[13] as compared with a background current value of $25 billion per year budget for the entire U.S. oil import dependence^[14]

The U.S. Department of Energy estimates that by 2050, the world's population will reach 9.4 billion, and per capita income will double. This will result in a doubling of energy demand, and in an age of growing concerns over climate change, the world is increasingly looking to renewable energy to power the economies of the future.

In addition, according to the International Energy Agency (IEA), $2.55 trillion/year will have to be spent on global energy infrastructure and energy efficiency initiatives. This presents a massive potential investment opportunity but also comes with many risks. The Obama Administration sold Silicon Valley venture capitalists on the idea that Obama would give them exclusive access to this “coming green energy gold rush” if they financed his political campaigns. Obama’s staff got together with the Silicon Valley VC’s to create a synthetic crisis based on climate data manipulation. While the climate does, indeed, change, the “crisis” that the Obama Team dreamed up was created in a way so that only Obama’s friends could solve it. Wasn’t that an ironic coincidence? Anybody who competed with Obama’s friends who were “solving this problem” had hit-jobs, industrial sabotage and character assassination launched against them by the Obama White House and Obama’s friends.

Why would they do such insane things? Why would they kill Seth Rich or any of the 42 different competitors who were murdered since 2008? For greed and sociopath-like power mongering.

According to the IEA's 2012 World Energy Outlook report that Obama used to market his scheme: “... between 2012 and 2035, $6.4 trillion ($278 billion/year) will be spent on renewable energy as the share of electricity generated from environmentally-friendly sources nearly triples to 31%. The three largest areas of investment will include wind power ($2.1 trillion), hydroelectric ($1.5 trillion), and solar photovoltaics ($1.3 trillion)....” all of that “green energy” was previously acquired by Obama's friends and financiers based on tips from Obama staffers David Plouffe, David Axelrod and Rahm Emmanuel. This arrangement was created by Obama and the DNC in order to kick-back crony government payola. The amounts of money involved in these schemes is beyond the capacity of 99% of the population to even comprehend. The CleanTech Crash was a crony payola scam which paid off politicians in insider trading stock ownerships.

Hillary Clinton's gal pal: Margaret Sullivan (Who is also Tom Steyer's right-hand girl) was moved into leadership at the USAID, which pushed a manipulated report that said that Afghanistan was full of lithium ion battery mines for Obama financier Elon Musk. The Afghan mines were supposed to be a campaign trade, to Silicon Valley oligarchs in exchange for internet election rigging and campaign cash. This was just another portion of the CleanTech Crash crony payola scam with even more insider trading stock perk payola.

To cut to the chase: the energy industry is now a SEVEN TRILLION DOLLAR industry and, at least, 5 people per day are killed in wars and industrial “situations” in order to keep those energy dollars in certain people’s hands.

People do kill people over seven trillion dollars of profits. People do plant moles, saboteurs and operate character assassinations if they fear that a new technology or a new candidate might affect that seven trillion dollars.

Google, Gawker, Gizmodo and that media Cartel do run character assassinations, costing tens of millions of dollars, against individuals and start-up companies who, they think, might have innovations that shift the flow of that seven trillion. They are doing the same exact thing, in exactly the same exact ways, to the Trump Administration because Trump is not buying into their crony scams.

Elon Musk, Eric Schmidt, Larry Page, John Doerr, Mark Zuckerberg and the Silicon Valley oligarchs paid for, and directed, those attacks. They used psychological warfare and subliminal message program on a scale never before seen in society. The Silicon Valley oligarchs and the DNC manipulators need to now face an epic punishment for their crimes.

Democracy can never be allowed to be their play-thing again!

If any person doubts or disputes the facts presented here, they are welcome to meet with the thousands of witnesses and victims of these crimes before a Federal Public Civil Jury, an Open Grand Jury, a Live Streamed Web-Cast and/or a Televised Congressional Hearing. The facts are clear. The “fake news” cover-ups are falling apart. Every single troll and shill working on hiding these facts has been hunted down and exposed. Millions of citizens now have access to the complete case documents. This matter will never end until justice is served.

Obama’s “Climate Change” Scam was a scheme to give taxpayer cash only to his Silicon Valley campaign financiers by using the Dept. of Energy as a POLITICAL SLUSH-FUND to pay crony payola to his friends and sabotage their competitors!

18 U.S. Code § 2384 - Seditious conspiracy

If two or more persons in any State or Territory, or in any place subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, conspire to overthrow, put down, or to destroy by force the Government of the United States, or to levy war against them, or to oppose by force the authority thereof, or by force to prevent, hinder, or delay the execution of any law of the United States, or by force to seize, take, or possess any property of the United States contrary to the authority thereof, they shall each be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than twenty years, or both.

SPIES IN THE WHITE HOUSE

The FBI sought a FISA court warrant in June 2016 to examine the activities of 'U.S. persons' in Donald Trump's campaign - including Trump - with ties to Russia. Denied, they changed the request to be more narrow, and nicked Trump himself from the request. It was granted in October. (1)(2)

Days before Donald Trump took office, Obama signed EO12333 that changed NSA rules to allow the sharing of vast amounts of private data gathered without warrant, or congressional authorization with 16 other agencies. (3)(4)

Hold overs from the previous administration now have access to information on Trump's associates. The media receives tips for months from "anonymous sources" about supposed controversies in the white house. The media plays it up, despite the FBI saying it has no evidence of any wrongdoings. (5)

This may even have lead to the botched raid in Yemen, as a source said it was like they knew we were coming. (6)

In short: Holdovers from the previous administration are undermining the White House.

SLUSH FUNDS FOR FRIENDS

The Obama administration funneled billions of dollars to activist organizations through a Department of Justice slush fund scheme, according to congressional investigators.

Big banks are sued by the government. They can settle the cases by donating to third-party non-victims. So far, investigators have accounted for $3 billion paid to non-victim entities. (1)

These non-victim entities include left leaning activist groups like National Council of La Raza - often considered a Hispanic supremacist group, and The National Community Reinvestment Coalition who promote illegal immigration.

Groups that congress either already allotted funds to, or denied funds to are being donated to in this way, essentially circumventing congress' power to appropriate money. (2)

In short: The DOJ shakes down banks through litigation and incentivises them to settle cases through donations to their pet projects; bypassing Congress' "power of the purse"

CAMPAGNING WITH LAUNDERED TAXES

A bi-partisan Senate Committee issued a report exposing the Obama State Department's funding of campaign infrastructure used to oppose Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's reelection in 2015.

The Obama State Department awarded $348,276 to a politically active organization called OneVoice and according to the Senate report, "within days after the grant period ended, OneVoice deployed the campaign infrastructure and resources created using grant funds to support an anti-Netanyahu political campaign called V15." (1)

V15 hired 270 Strategies, an American political consulting group headed by Jeremy Bird, who worked on President Barack Obama's two victorious presidential campaigns. (2)

Senior strategists and campaign veterans from grassroots consulting firm 270 Strategies went to Philadelphia during the Democratic National Convention to campaign for Hillary Clinton (3)

In short: It's very possible your tax dollars were laundered and used to campaign for Hillary Clinton

PUBLIC BOYCOTTS, DOXXING AND PUBLIC INVESTIGATIONS HAVE STARTED. EVERYONE IS TELLING THEIR STOCK BROKERS TO PULL OUT OF ANY STOCKS THEY HAVE IN SILICON VALLEY OR BIG HOLLYWOOD. THE PUBLIC IS NOW TAKING ALL OF THE PERPETRATORS DOWN. TAKE ACTION TODAY AND BANKRUPT A POLITICALLY CORRUPT COMPANY TOMORROW!

The “SILICON MAFIA” including Reid Hoffman, Elon Musk and the insane sociopath frat boy/gay boy billionaire oligarchs of Silicon Valley. They decided that Democracy was going to be their play-thing!:

THIS CASE IS NOT ABOUT POLITICS, DEMOCRATS NOR REPUBLICANS. IT IS ABOUT ORGANIZED CRIME AND FELONY LAW BREAKING!

Do not buy into the "bad guys" smoke-screen attempts, in this case, to play it off as an ideological battle or a campaign issue.

The facts are: Criminals did crimes. They broke the law. They lied. They stole U.S. Treasury taxpayer cash. Justice must be delivered in a legal yet devastating manner!

From A Law Enforcement Report:

"Action Item: Case Update Investigation Requests

Senior White House Executives and The President of the United States under the Obama Administration are well aware of this case. Some of them engaged in crimes and cover-ups in order to exploit the illicit assets of this case.

Senior executives at The Department of Transportation, The Department of Energy, The Securities and Exchange Commission and some Law Enforcement agencies received profits from the illicit assets of this case and operated stand-downs, reprisal efforts, and cover-ups of regulatory and law enforcement efforts for their own private ends.

Campaign financiers in a Cartel-based association operating in violation of Racketeering RICO laws exchanged cash, stock warrants, prostitutes, revolving doors, internet and media manipulation, and other goods, for government contracts, grants, stock pumps, and federal appointments. This Cartel operated Ener1, Abound, Solyndra, Ivanpah, Severstal, A123, Fisker, Tesla Motors, SpaceX, Solar City, Abengoa, and other facade efforts which stood as fronts for the asset transfers. Key portions of the illicit asset transfers occurred as skims-off-the-top as the money was transferred from the U.S. Treasury to private accounts. Other key portions of the illicit asset transfers occurred as stock market pump-and-dump profiteering under a process that U.S. Treasury inspectors call: "Unjust Reward Graft by State and Federal Employees...".

The Obama/DNC Administration controlled media outlets including: CNN, NBC/MSNBC, The New York Times, The Washington Post, The Los Angeles Times, Twitter, Google, LinkedIn, Facebook, The New Yorker, Salon, Cracked, WIRED, Ars Technica, Vox, Gawker Media, The Verge, TechCrunch, All Disney Properties, Gizmodo, Univision, Kotaku, All Sony Properties, LifeHacker, Jezebel, All William Hearst properties, San Jose Mercury News, Deadspin, Jalopnik, Reddit.com, The Daily Dot, The Huffington Post, San Francisco Chronicle, MediaMatters, Politico, PolitiFact, ValueWalk, New York Daily News, TIME, Newsweek, Snopes, Motley Fool, Think Progress and related publications. This media control accounted for 95% of U.S. Domestic media impressions at one time and allowed the suspects to avoid news circumspection and to put character assassination and doubt-creation hit jobs on adversaries.

“Don’t worry, it’s green and it will save penguins”- PR was used as a smoke-screen to attempt to lull voters into the typical “...move along, nothing to see here” political play-book ploy.

After receiving more taxpayer cash hand-outs than any group in U.S. history, given to the smallest financially connected group, from the same federal administrators, while sabotaging only the competitors of that group, the facade companies all suddenly failed. This has never happened before in the history of America. The evidence points to only one conclusion: An organized crime activity was interdicted and the activity was definitely a felony-class criminal collusion effort.

Silicon Valley oligarchs were the primary instigators and beneficiaries of the scheme. Their leaders included Steve Westly, John Doerr, Eric Schmidt, Larry Page, Steven and Alison Spinner, Elon Musk, Jared Cohen, Steven Rattner, Steven Jurvetson, and related parties.

They used intermediate operations which include In-Q-Tel, Media Matters, New America Foundation, Think Progress, Deloitte Consulting, CBRE, Wells Fargo, Goldman Sachs, McKinsey Consulting and lobbyists to operate their scheme.

Over 980 billion dollars, at a minimum, from the U.S. Treasury has been routed to the bank accounts of the suspects. Including losses from the Afghanistan War, which the suspects held a profiteering interest in, the calculated losses to U.S. taxpayers, to date, exceeds 6 trillion dollars.

Leaks from Jofi Joseph, Wikileaks, Guccifer, Panama Papers, HSBC Swiss Leaks and over 72 similar leaks have now confirmed these facts. Secret Service agents, who stood in the White House observing these actions, have reported their disgust at the corruption. FBI agents, who have investigated these incidents, have reported their disgust at the lack of authorized actions for this case. Over 80 members of the United States Congress have started to demand a Special Prosecutor for the investigation of this matter. Over 1000 witnesses have offered to testify if a credible Special Prosecutor is appointed.

CONSPIRACIES ARE REAL

How, After This Crazy Year, Is 'Conspiracy Theorist' Still Being Used As An Insult?

#Conspiracy #ConspiracyTheory #WikiLeaks #Leak #Email

Since WikiLeaks has clearly revealed that our government is lying to us and the mainstream media is helping them, it's absurd for 'conspiracy theorist' to continue to exist as a dismissive pejorative.

I still get called a crazy conspiracy theorist all the time for writing about things like how Hillary Clinton's no-fly zone in Syria would have probably required a war with Russia, or how Obama's cabinet was largely appointed for him by an executive from Citigroup before he was even elected. These ideas aren't based on wild conjecture or an over-active imagination; there's plenty of solid and reputable evidence behind them for anyone who cares to do their own research (or just click my damn hyperlinks and view my sources! How hard is it, people? I'm not making this stuff up! I did all the work for you! What do you want me to do, come over to your house and read it to you in different character voices while you drink hot chocolate with marshmallows? What am I, your mom? Not that I'm bitter or anything).

But lack of solid evidence isn't what elicits such accusations and dismissals; the reason such ideas get dismissed as conspiracy theory so often is not due to lack of evidence, but due to lack of coverage by mainstream media franchises. Which should not be the case, because WikiLeaks has confirmed beyond a shadow of a doubt that the mainstream media actively collaborates with politicians and campaigns to manipulate the public narrative. These people who have "both a public position and a private position" also have legions of members of the press in the upper echelons of news media actively colluding with their agendas. But then, that hasn't been covered much by mainstream media either.

It wasn't that long ago that a conspiracy theory was generally considered to mean an unproven notion widely frowned upon because its adherents tended to have very flimsy standards for proof, and would grasp at any shred of evidence no matter how disreputable as long as it satisfied their confirmation bias. Nowadays, if the conversations I've been having lately are any indication, the term now essentially means "anything I haven't seen on CNN," or even "any new information that causes me to experience cognitive dissonance." It's become another meaningless, vacuous phrase mechanically bleated out by ignorant identity politics dogmatists to support the establishment agenda, much like "support our troops" when the establishment wants to kill people over crude oil, or "obstructionist congress" when the establishment wants people to ignore the way Obama continued and expanded all the worst aspects of the Bush administration, or "don't discuss politics or religion" when the establishment wants us all to turn into a bunch of vapid, drooling idiots.

If I've noticed this trend, a lot of my readers probably have, too. But even if the phrase "conspiracy theorist" hadn't been twisted into an arbitrary knee-jerk dismissive pejorative and retained its more traditional usage, it's still silly to see it employed at all.

I mean, think about it. What have we learned this year? The Obama campaign actively conspired with a Citigroup executive to determine which cabinet members would benefit the people responsible for the Wall Street crash and push the TPP through in great secrecy. The DNC actively conspired to thwart the campaign of one of their candidates in favor of the other in the contest they themselves were responsible for ensuring remains fair and even-handed. Hillary Clinton's campaign staff actively conspired to elevate Donald Trump above the other Republican candidates in order to sink the campaigns of the moderates. Members of the mainstream media actively conspired with the Clinton campaign to elevate her above her competitors. A Clinton super PAC actively conspired to use paid shills to deceive people on internet discussion forums into thinking that Clinton had more grassroots support than she did. Democratic party elites actively conspired to use the media to create a liberal "echo chamber" and control public discourse. I could go on and on and on. These are actual conspiracies that people would have been (and were) mocked and dismissed as conspiracy theorists for suggesting before they were proven, and then they were proven. Every one of them.

Is it reasonable, then, to dismiss anyone who comes up with a plausible theory involving powerful individuals manipulating things in a shady manner? The leaked documents from WikiLeaks only gave us a tiny glimpse behind the curtain of an opaque government and an opaque electoral process, and what we saw there was horrifying. Democracy being actively sabotaged at every turn, plutocrats being given the keys to the nation, and the American people being deliberately and systematically deceived. What else is back there? Is it unreasonable to assume that there are many, many far more horrific things going on behind the veil of government secrecy? I don't think so. This doesn't mean we should accept any conspiracy theory as gospel truth; these ideas ought to be vigorously debated, and we should of course always bring critical thinking to the table. But in light of this year's revelations, critical thinking necessarily means being wide open to the possibility that things are not at all happening the way we're being told.

It's very naive to think that large institutions are immune to criminality, and that it's not possible for networks of people in power to use that power for ill. Are we really meant to ignore that obvious reality whenever it appears to be manifesting in our own institutions? I'd say that would be pretty stupid.

Lately whenever someone accuses me of spreading a conspiracy theory I've been mentally replacing the word "conspiracy" with one of its synonyms, which makes them sound a lot sillier. You should try it. "God, spare me the collaboration theory" doesn't have that instant debunking quality that they're reaching for. It means the same thing, and there is definitely collaboration happening, but now it's got the baseless stigma removed.

You can use other words like a "collusion" theory. A "co-operation" theory. "Pfft," you hear them say. "That's just an organized crime theory."

1. Our Concern. From the day of President Kennedy's assassination on, there has been speculation about the responsibility for his murder. Although this was stemmed for a time by the Warren Commission report (which appeared at the end of September 1964), various writers have now had time to scan the Commission's published report and documents for new pretexts for questioning, and there has been a new wave of books and articles criticizing the Commission's findings. In most cases the critics have speculated as to the existence of some kind of conspiracy, and often they have implied that the Commission itself was involved. Presumably as a result of the increasing challenge to the Warren

The phrase “conspiracy theorist” gets thrown around these days like pies get thrown around in an episode of The Three Stooges. It has become so overused in fact that it almost doesn’t mean anything anymore (and has been superseded by the “fake news” psyop as a means of discrediting truly independent media that criticizes the establishment or asks too many questions).

Once upon a time, being a conspiracy theorist wasn’t automatically akin to being a crazy tin foil hatter. That all changed swiftly after John F. Kennedy’s assassination, when polls showed nearly half the country was not buying the Warren Commission’s findings or its report solidifying the government’s official version of events; a Gallup poll reported in January 1967 that at least 46% of the country did not believe Oswald acted alone. (Bear in mind this was a full decade before the House Select Committee on Assassinations investigated JFK’s murder and concluded that, “Scientific acoustical evidence establishes a high probability that two gunmen fired at President John F. Kennedy,” and that “President John F. Kennedy was probably assassinated as a result of a conspiracy.”)

At the same time, Mark Lane had just released his book "Rush to Judgment: A Critique of the Warren Commission's Inquiry into the Murders of President John F. Kennedy, Officer J. D. Tippit and Lee Harvey Oswald" and a three-judge panel had just ruled that District Attorney Jim Garrison had enough evidence to take Clay Shaw to trial on charges of conspiring to assassinate JFK.

The Central Intelligence Agency released the following memo in April 1967 categorized as "PSYCH" which essentially weaponized the use of the label "conspiracy theorist" and laid out a number of dirty tactics using "elite friendly contacts" including politicians and media figures to discredit and shut down any claims and ultimately demonize anyone who attempted to challenge the government's official version of events.

This is how it worked then and it's clearly still how it works today.

If you read this document, you'll see elements of it still in play today every time a major event takes place that the system does not want anyone asking questions about.

Conspiracy Theorists USED TO Be Accepted As Normal

Democracy and free market capitalism were founded on conspiracy theories.

The Magna Carta, the Constitution and Declaration of Independence and other founding Western documents were based on conspiracy theories. Greek democracy and free market capitalism were also based on conspiracy theories.

But those were the bad old days ... Things have now changed.

The CIA Coined the Term Conspiracy Theorist In 1967

That all changed in the 1960s.

Specifically, in April 1967, the CIA wrote a dispatch which coined the term "conspiracy theories" ... and recommended methods for discrediting such theories. The dispatch was marked "psych" – short for "psychological operations" or disinformation – and "CS" for the CIA's "Clandestine Services" unit.

The dispatch was produced in responses to a Freedom of Information Act request by the New York Times in 1976.

The dispatch states:

2. This trend of opinion is a matter of concern to the U.S. government, including our organization.

The aim of this dispatch is to provide material countering and discrediting the claims of the conspiracy theorists, so as to inhibit the circulation of such claims in other countries. Background information is supplied in a classified section and in a number of unclassified attachments.

3. Action. We do not recommend that discussion of the [conspiracy] question be initiated where it is not already taking place. Where discussion is active addresses are requested:

a. To discuss the publicity problem with and friendly elite contacts (especially politicians and editors) , pointing out that the [official investigation of the relevant event] made as thorough an investigation as humanly possible, that the charges of the critics are without serious foundation, and that further speculative discussion only plays into the hands of the opposition. Point out also that parts of the conspiracy talk appear to be deliberately generated by ... propagandists. Urge them to use their influence to discourage unfounded and irresponsible speculation.

b. To employ propaganda assets to and refute the attacks of the critics. Book reviews and feature articles are particularly appropriate for this purpose. The unclassified attachments to this guidance should provide useful background material for passing to assets. Our ploy should point out, as applicable, that the critics are (I) wedded to theories adopted before the evidence was in, (II) politically interested, (III) financially interested, (IV) hasty and inaccurate in their research, or (V) infatuated with their own theories.

4. In private to media discussions not directed at any particular writer, or in attacking publications which may be yet forthcoming, the following arguments should be useful:

a. No significant new evidence has emerged which the Commission did not consider.

b. Critics usually overvalue particular items and ignore others. They tend to place more emphasis on the recollections of individual witnesses (which are less reliable and more divergent—and hence offer more hand-holds for criticism) ...

c. Conspiracy on the large scale often suggested would be impossible to conceal in the United States, esp. since informants could expect to receive large royalties, etc.

d. Critics have often been enticed by a form of intellectual pride: they light on some theory and fall in love with it; they also scoff at the Commission because it did not always answer every question with a flat decision one way or the other.

f. As to charges that the Commission's report was a rush job, it emerged three months after the deadline originally set. But to the degree that the Commission tried to speed up its reporting, this was largely due to the pressure of irresponsible speculation already appearing, in some cases coming from the same critics who, refusing to admit their errors, are now putting out new criticisms.

g. Such vague accusations as that "more than ten people have died mysteriously" can always be explained in some natural way

5. Where possible, counter speculation by encouraging reference to the Commission's Report itself. Open-minded foreign readers should still be impressed by the care, thoroughness, objectivity and speed with which the Commission worked. Reviewers of other books might be encouraged to add to their account the idea that, checking back with the report itself, they found it far superior to the work of its critics.

OF THE SOURCE MATERIAL, RELEASED UNDER THE TERMS, AND PROVIDED GENERAL "EXPLANATION" OF THE CASE. THE SPECIFIC ARTICLE WAS WRITTEN

1. Our Concern. From the day of President Kennedy's assassination on, there has been speculation about the responsibility for his murder. Although this was stemmed for a time by the Warren Commission report (which appeared at the end of September 1964), various writers have now had time to scan the Commission's published report and documents for new pretexts for questioning, and there has been a new wave of books and articles criticizing the Commission's findings. In most cases the critics have speculated as to the existence of some kind of conspiracy, and often they have implied that the Commission itself was involved. Presumably as a result of the increasing challenge to the Warren Commission's Report, a public opinion poll recently indicated that 46% of the American public did not think that Oswald acted alone, while more than half of those polled thought that the Commission had left some questions unresolved. Doubtless polls abroad would show similar, or possibly more adverse, results.

2. This trend of opinion is a matter of concern to the U.S. government, including our organization. The members of the Warren Commission were naturally chosen for their integrity, experience, and prominence. They represented both major parties, and they and their staff were deliberately drawn from all sections of the country. Just because of the standing of the Commissioners, efforts to impugn their rectitude and wisdom tend to cast doubt on the whole leadership of American society. Moreover, there seems to be an increasing tendency to hint that President Johnson himself, as the one person who might be said to have benefited, was in some way responsible for the assassination. Immundo of such seriousness affects not only the individual concerned, but also the whole reputation of the American government. Our organization itself is directly involved: among other facts, we contributed information to the investigation. Conspiracy theories have frequently thrown suspicion on our organization, for example by falsely alleging that Lee Harvey Oswald worked for us. The aim of this dispatch is to provide material for countering and discrediting the claims of the conspiracy theorists, so as to inhibit the circulation of such claims in other countries. Background information is supplied in a classified section and in a number of unclassified attachments.

3. Action. We do not recommend that discussion of the assassination question be initiated where it is not already taking place. Where discussion is active however addressees are requested:

2 Countering Criticism of the Warren Report

CONTINUATION OF DISPATCH

a. To discuss the publicity problem with liaison and friendly elite contacts (especially politicians and editors), pointing out that the Warren Commission made as thorough an investigation as humanly possible; that the charges of the critics are without serious foundation, and that further speculative discussion only plays into the hands of the opposition. Point out also that parts of the conspiracy talk appear to be deliberately generated by Communist propagandists. Urge them to use their influence to discourage unfounded and irresponsible speculation.

b. To employ propaganda assets to answer and refute the attacks of the critics. Book reviews and feature articles are particularly appropriate for this purpose. The unclassified attachments to this guidance should provide useful background material for passage to assets. Our play should point out, as applicable, that the critics are (i) wedded to theories adopted before the evidence was in, (ii) politically interested, (iii) financially interested, (iv) hasty and inaccurate in their research, or (v) infatuated with their own theories. In the course of discussions of the whole phenomenon of criticism, a useful strategy may be to single out Epstein's theory for attack, using the attached Fletcher Knabel article and Spectator piece for background. (Although Mark Lane's book is much less convincing than Epstein's and comes off badly where contested by knowledgeable critics, it is also ~~more~~ more difficult to answer as a whole, as one becomes lost in a morass of unrelated details.)

4. In private or media discussion not directed at any particular writer, or attacking publications which may be yet forthcoming, the following arguments could be useful:

a. No significant new evidence has emerged which the Commission did not consider. The assassination is sometimes compared (e.g., by Joachim Joesten and Bertrand Russell) with the Dreyfus case; however, unlike that case, the attacks on the Warren Commission have produced no new evidence, no new culprits have been convincingly identified, and there is no agreement among the critics. (A better parallel, though an imperfect one, might be with the Reichstag fire of 1933, which some competent historians (Fritz Tobias, A.J.P. Taylor, D.C. Watt) now believe was set by Van der Lubbe on his own initiative, without acting for either Nazis or Communists; the Nazis tried to pin the blame on the Communists, but the latter have been much more successful in convincing the world that the

Summarizing the tactics which the CIA dispatch recommended:

- Claim that it would be impossible for so many people would keep quiet about such a big conspiracy

- Have people friendly to the CIA attack the claims, and point back to “official” reports
- Claim that eyewitness testimony is unreliable
- Claim that this is all old news, as “no significant new evidence has emerged”
- Ignore conspiracy claims unless discussion about them is already too active
- Claim that it’s irresponsible to speculate
- Accuse theorists of being wedded to and infatuated with their theories
- Accuse theorists of being politically motivated
- Accuse theorists of having financial interests in promoting conspiracy theories

In other words, the CIA’s clandestine services unit created the arguments for attacking conspiracy theories as unreliable in the 1960s as part of its psychological warfare operations.

But Aren’t Conspiracy Theories – In Fact – Nuts?

Forget Western history and CIA dispatches ... aren’t conspiracy theorists nutty?

In fact, conspiracies are so common that judges are trained to look at conspiracy allegations as just another legal claim to be disproven or proven based on the specific evidence:

Federal and all 50 state’s codes include specific statutes addressing conspiracy, and providing the punishment for people who commit conspiracies.

But let’s examine what the people trained to weigh evidence and reach conclusions think about “conspiracies”. Let’s look at what American judges think.

Searching Westlaw, one of the 2 primary legal research networks which attorneys and judges use to research the law, I searched for court decisions including the word “Conspiracy”. This is such a common term in lawsuits that it overwhelmed Westlaw.

Specifically, I got the following message:

“Your query has been intercepted because it may retrieve a large number of documents.”

From experience, I know that this means that there were potentially millions or many hundreds of thousands of cases which use the term. There were so many cases, that Westlaw could not even start processing the request.

So I searched again, using the phrase “Guilty of Conspiracy”. I hoped that this would not only narrow my search sufficiently that Westlaw could handle it, but would give me cases where the judge actually found the defendant guilty of a conspiracy. This pulled up exactly 10,000 cases — which is the maximum number of results which Westlaw can give at one time. In other words, there were more than 10,000 cases using the phrase “Guilty of Conspiracy” (maybe there’s a way to change my settings to get more than 10,000 results, but I haven’t found it yet).

Moreover, as any attorney can confirm, usually only appeal court decisions are published in the Westlaw database. In other words, trial court decisions are rarely published; the only decisions normally published are those of the courts which hear appeals of the trial. Because only a very small fraction of the cases which go to trial are appealed, this logically means that the number of guilty verdicts in conspiracy cases at trial must be much, much larger than 10,000.

Moreover, “Guilty of Conspiracy” is only one of many possible search phrases to use to find cases where the defendant was found guilty of a lawsuit for conspiracy. Searching on Google, I got 3,170,000 results (as of yesterday) under the term “Guilty of Conspiracy”, 669,000 results for the search term “Convictions for Conspiracy”, and 743,000 results for “Convicted for Conspiracy”.

Of course, many types of conspiracies are called other things altogether. For example, a long-accepted legal doctrine makes it illegal for two or more companies to conspire to fix prices, which is called “Price Fixing” (1,180,000 results).

Given the above, I would extrapolate that there have been hundreds of thousands of convictions for criminal or civil conspiracy in the United States.

Finally, many crimes go unreported or unsolved, and the perpetrators are never caught. Therefore, the actual number of conspiracies committed in the U.S. must be even higher.

In other words, conspiracies are committed all the time in the U.S., and many of the conspirators are caught and found guilty by American courts. Remember, Bernie Madoff’s Ponzi scheme was a conspiracy theory.

Indeed, conspiracy is a very well-recognized crime in American law, taught to every first-year law school student as part of their basic curriculum. Telling a judge that someone has a “conspiracy theory” would be like telling him that someone is claiming that he trespassed on their property, or committed assault, or stole his car. It is a fundamental legal concept.

Obviously, many conspiracy allegations are false (if you see a judge at a dinner party, ask him to tell you some of the crazy conspiracy allegations which were made in his court). Obviously, people will either win or lose in court depending on whether or not they can prove their claim with the available evidence. But not all allegations of trespass, assault, or theft are true, either.

Proving a claim of conspiracy is no different from proving any other legal claim, and the mere label “conspiracy” is taken no less seriously by judges.

It’s not only Madoff. The heads of Enron were found guilty of conspiracy, as was the head of Adelphia. Numerous lower-level government officials have been found guilty of conspiracy. See this, this, this, this and this.

Time Magazine's financial columnist Justin Fox writes:

Some financial market conspiracies are real ...

Most good investigative reporters are conspiracy theorists, by the way.

And what about the NSA and the tech companies that have cooperated with them?

But Our Leaders Wouldn't Do That

While people might admit that corporate executives and low-level government officials might have engaged in conspiracies – they may be strongly opposed to considering that the wealthiest or most powerful might possibly have done so.

But powerful insiders have long admitted to conspiracies. For example, Obama's Administrator of the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Cass Sunstein, wrote:

Of course some conspiracy theories, under our definition, have turned out to be true. The Watergate hotel room used by Democratic National Committee was, in fact, bugged by Republican officials, operating at the behest of the White House. In the 1950s, the Central Intelligence Agency did, in fact, administer LSD and related drugs under Project MKULTRA, in an effort to investigate the possibility of "mind control." Operation Northwoods, a rumored plan by the Department of Defense to simulate acts of terrorism and to blame them on Cuba, really was proposed by high-level officials

But Someone Would Have Spilled the Beans

A common defense to people trying sidetrack investigations into potential conspiracies is to say that "someone would have spilled the beans" if there were really a conspiracy.

But famed whistleblower Daniel Ellsberg explains:

It is a commonplace that "you can't keep secrets in Washington" or "in a democracy, no matter how sensitive the secret, you're likely to read it the next day in the New York Times." These truisms are flatly false. They are in fact cover stories, ways of flattering and misleading journalists and their readers, part of the process of keeping secrets well. Of course eventually many secrets do get out that wouldn't in a fully totalitarian society. But the fact is that the overwhelming majority of secrets do not leak to the American public. This is true even when the information withheld is well known to an enemy and when it is clearly essential to the functioning of the congressional war power and to any democratic control of foreign policy. The reality unknown to the public and to most members of Congress and the press is that secrets that would be of the greatest import to many of them can be kept from them reliably for decades by the executive branch, even though they are known to thousands of insiders.

History proves Ellsberg right. For example:

- One hundred and thirty thousand \(130,000\) people from the U.S., UK and Canada worked on the Manhattan Project. But it was kept secret for years

- A BBC documentary shows that:

There was “a planned coup in the USA in 1933 by a group of right-wing American businessmen The coup was aimed at toppling President Franklin D Roosevelt with the help of half-a-million war veterans. The plotters, who were alleged to involve some of the most famous families in America, (owners of Heinz, Birds Eye, Goodtea, Maxwell Hse & George Bush’s Grandfather, Prescott) believed that their country should adopt the policies of Hitler and Mussolini to beat the great depression”

Moreover, “the tycoons told General Butler the American people would accept the new government because they controlled all the newspapers.” Have you ever heard of this conspiracy before? It was certainly a very large one. And if the conspirators controlled the newspapers then, how much worse is it today with media consolidation?

- 7 out of the 8 giant, money center banks went bankrupt in the 1980’s during the “Latin American Crisis”, and the government’s response was to cover up their insolvency. That’s a cover up lasting several decades
- Banks have been involved in systematic criminal behavior, and have manipulated every single market
- Governments have been covering up nuclear meltdowns for fifty years to protect the nuclear industry. Governments have colluded to cover up the severity of numerous other environmental accidents. For many years, Texas officials intentionally under-reported the amount of radiation in drinking water to avoid having to report violations
- The government’s spying on Americans began before 9/11 (confirmed here and here. And see this.) But the public didn’t learn about it until many years later. Indeed, the the New York Times delayed the story so that it would not affect the outcome of the 2004 presidential election
- The decision to launch the Iraq war was made before 9/11. Indeed, former CIA director George Tenet said that the White House wanted to invade Iraq long before 9/11, and inserted “crap” in its justifications for invading Iraq. Former Treasury Secretary Paul O’Neill – who sat on the National Security Council – also says that Bush planned the Iraq war before 9/11. And top British officials say that the U.S. discussed Iraq regime change one month after Bush took office. Dick Cheney apparently even made Iraqi’s oil fields a national security priority before 9/11. And it has now been shown that a handful of people were responsible for willfully ignoring the evidence that Iraq lacked weapons of mass destruction. These facts have only been publicly disclosed recently. Indeed, Tom Brokaw said, “All wars are based on propaganda.” A concerted effort to produce propaganda is a conspiracy

Moreover, high-level government officials and insiders have admitted to dramatic conspiracies after the fact, including:

- Supporting terrorists to promote geopolitical goals

- Supporting false flag terror

The admissions did not occur until many decades after the events.

These examples show that it is possible to keep conspiracies secret for a long time, without anyone “spilling the beans”.

In addition, to anyone who knows how covert military operations work, it is obvious that segmentation on a “need-to-know basis”, along with deference to command hierarchy, means that a couple of top dogs can call the shots and most people helping won't even know the big picture at the time they are participating.

Moreover, those who think that co-conspirators will brag about their deeds forget that people in the military or intelligence or who have huge sums of money on the line can be very disciplined. They are not likely to go to the bar and spill the beans like a down-on-their-luck, second-rate alcoholic robber might do.

Finally, people who carry out covert operations may do so for ideological reasons — believing that the “ends justify the means”. Never underestimate the conviction of an ideologue.

Conclusion

The bottom line is that some conspiracy claims are nutty and some are true. Each has to be judged on its own facts.

Humans have a tendency to try to explain random events through seeing patterns ... that's how our brains are wired. Therefore, we have to test our theories of connection and causality against the cold, hard facts.

On the other hand, the old saying by Lord Acton is true:

Power tends to corrupt, and absolute power tends to corrupt absolutely.

Those who operate without checks and balances – and without the disinfectant sunlight of public scrutiny and accountability – tend to act in their own best interests ... and the little guy gets hurt.

The early Greeks knew it, as did those who forced the king to sign the Magna Carta, the Founding Fathers and the father of modern economics. We should remember this important tradition of Western civilization.

Postscript: The ridicule of all conspiracy theories is really just an attempt to diffuse criticism of the powerful.

The wealthy are not worse than other people ... but they are not necessarily better either. Powerful leaders may not be bad people ... or they could be sociopaths.

We must judge each by his or her actions, and not by preconceived stereotypes that they are all saints acting in our best interest or all scheming criminals.

The Troll's Guide to Internet Disruption

THE XYZ CASE: "THE CLEANTECH-CRASH CRIMES"

A trillion dollar-plus political corruption case which abused taxpayers nation-wide and the public policy system over-all.

- The victims demand justice and restitution for the fraud, harassment and interference they suffered. These citizens must be compensated for the malicious, proven, retribution tactics, lies, toxic poisonings, vendetta cut-offs of all government benefits, vendetta cut-offs of all employment and revenue sources, interference, "missing hard drives" and interdiction efforts conducted, with applicants own tax dollars, against the applicants. Neither they, their families, staff and associates will rest until justice prevails.
- The public demands the arrest of the corrupt.
- Justice demands resolution or the repercussions will only continue to accelerate and amplify.

This crime continues to this day. The cover-ups continue to this day. The attacks on the victims and losses by the victims continue to this day.

Senators Reid and Feinstein, White House staff and Dept. of Energy executives had insider trading deals with Silicon Valley tech billionaires. They used Google and Gawker Media to attack witnesses, destroy competitors and rig the news in their favor while exploiting illicit mining and stock market crony corruption deals. The only "Green" thing they were interested in was the cash! They had "hard-wired" the DOE money, in advance, for the campaign financiers and simply used/defrauded the non-crony applicants as a smoke-screen to hide their scam while monopolizing markets in a scheme agreed to with Rahm Emanuel, David Axelrod, David Plouffe and their Cartel.

Through over-whelming transparency and evidence aggregation, this project seeks to document the crimes, on public record, on a permanent basis; and, without breaking a single law, terminate the corrupt and their corruption. It is the intent of the victims to, either, sue each and every suspect or acquire resolution from the government agencies involved.

CLAIMS:

Whistle-blower rewards are owed from the Securities and Exchange Commission, The Federal Bureau of Investigation, The Government Accountability Office, The Auditor General of The U.S. Department of Energy, The Federal Trade Commission, The Office of the Special Counsel, The California Victims Assistance Board, The U.S. and California Attorney General's offices and other agencies that received valuable law enforcement and oversight assistance from "Victims Group A". Recently one of the peers of "Victims Group A" received a $5 million reward for whistle-blower evidence on the U.S.

Department of Energy for exposing related cover-ups. The minimum average whistle-blower reward, to other parties, has previously averaged $1M per agency. Providing witnesses in this case have saved taxpayers over $1T (Trillion).

The attacks on witnesses and applicants used taxpayer financed government resources and cost the victims over $5B in damages based on industry comparative metrics and the published financial records, of the attackers, showing the attackers profits derived from re-directing victims money to themselves and their cronies and exploiting those funds for stock market profits.

Ten Times Bigger Than "Watergate" ...

One Hundred Times More Cover-Ups...

One Final Conclusion: Felony Crimes!

The definition of "politics" is:

"The process in which a man fights with another man to see which man, and his friends, will get to put your tax money in their pockets."

Representation of taxpayers in Washington, DC has become almost entirely about making fake "laws" which direct U.S. Treasury cash to one side or another. In the "Cleantech Crash" incident, this process stooped to the level of mobster-ism and organized crime.

This is the investigation of the crimes, the suspects and an outreach for the victims.

The U.S. Dept. of Energy Was Used As A Pre-Designated Political Slush Fund To Pay-off Billionaires and Destroy Their Competitors

- It was a felony crime.
- Without justice and restitution for the victims, it destroys American voters faith in The System.
- It is still going on.
- Taxpayers have lost trillions of their dollars, and public services, because of this corruption.
- Famous Senators and White House staff, who benefited from the crimes, are operating the cover-up.
- Evidence now proves that the Obama staff ordered DOJ, FBI, SEC, FCC, FTC, OSC and the AG to "Take no action on this investigation" in an overt set of orders to illegally operate a cover-up.

The father of a young bride-to-be has spoken out about his daughter's horrific death after the Tesla car she was driving crashed and burst into flames.

Casey Speckman, 27, was drunk-driving when the Model S Tesla carrying her and boss Kevin McCarthy, 44, smashed into a tree and exploded in Indianapolis on November 10.

But her father, Jon Speckman, says that she would have survived the crash if her car wasn't powered by lithium batteries - the same as those found in the exploding Galaxy Note 7 and hoverboard devices - the IndyStar reported.

Dead: Casey Speckman (left, with father Jon) died when she crashed a 2015 Tesla Model S into a tree in November. Its lithium batteries exploded, tearing the car apart

WHO OPERATED THE ATTACKS AND COVER-UPS?

It is widely documented in the media that the Obama Administration used a "hit-job" team to take-down and destroy reporters, members of the public, opposition politicians and business competitors via character assassinations, blacklists, hacking, interference and other dirty tricks. The hit job team has been widely reported to have consisted of: John Podesta, Ben Rhodes, Sidney Blumenthal, David Axelrod, Gawker Media, Media Matters, Think Progress, Jared Cohen, In-Q-Tel, Former CIA operatives, New America Foundation, Google, Facebook, Twitter, Reddit, David Plouffe, Rahm Emanuel, Jay Carney, Valarie Jarrett, A.L.I.C.E. and their inside contacts within “Big 6” media conglomerates. They would often use server farms hidden in Thailand, The Ukraine, Brazil and other foreign regions to rain DDOS attacks on anyone they did not like.

THE DEPT. OF ENERGY WAS USED AS A “MONOPOLIZER”:

In Role as Kingmaker, the Energy Department Stifles Innovation

By Darryl Siry | December 1, 2009 | 8:30 am | Categories: EVs and Hybrids

Of all of the Department of Energy programs intended to advance the green agenda while stimulating the economy, the Advanced Technology Vehicle Manufacturing incentive to spur the development of cleaner, greener automobiles is perhaps the most ambitious. But it has a downside.

Gawker Media and Gizmodo Media hid and laundered money to evade taxes and to hide the fact that they were a political character assassination squad for Obama:

OVER 5 MILLION PAGES OF EVIDENCE HAVE BEEN PROVIDED TO THE FBI, THE SEC, THE GAO, THE EU, CONGRESS AND THE NEWS MEDIA:

THE FACTS ARE THE FACTS:

WHAT KIND OF STOCK SCAM IS TESLA REALLY OPERATING? A TWISTED AND CRIMINALLY ILLICIT ONE!

Photos, videos, voice-mails, emails and more prove that this happened. Why would a candidate stoop so low? Is it too ironic that one of those "friends" ran the very same USAID that published the "Let's Dig Up Afghanistan" USAID mining reports AND promoted the Afghan mining deals AND that they were also connected to a notorious foundation AND a famous Silicon Valley billionaire AND Eric Holder's and Steven Chu's law firm: Covington and Burling? The U.S. Congress wants to know!

LITHIUM ION KILLS WORKERS & CONSUMERS. When this lithium ion battery safety review request petition was placed on the Obama Administration White House web-site, The Obama staff manipulated the visibility and sign-up count, according to server stats and third-party auditing, in order to hide the issue to protect Obama's Silicon Valley financiers:

The screenshot shows a petition page on the White House website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the text "WE the PEOPLE" and "YOUR VOICE IN THE WHITE HOUSE". Below this, the petition title is "Ban dangerous lithium ion batteries from U.S. regions as advised by thousands of experts", created by S.R. on November 07, 2016. The main text of the petition describes the dangers of lithium ion batteries, stating they can explode, cause cancer, and damage organs. It also mentions that lithium is mined in war-torn regions. On the right side, there is a "Sign This Petition" section with a progress bar showing 15,000 signatures out of a 100,000 goal. Below the progress bar are input fields for "First Name", "Last Name", and "Email Address". There is also a checkbox for "PRESIDENT OBAMA AND THE WHITE HOUSE MAY SEND ME EMAILS ABOUT THIS AND OTHER ISSUES." and a "Sign Now" button. Ban dangerous lithium ion batteries from U.S. regions as advised by thousands of experts

Created by S.R. on November 07, 2016

Sub-atomic issues and the highly explosive nature of lithium ion batteries cause them to explode all the time. Lithium ion batteries explode when they get wet, bumped, charged or cross certain types of high-energy fields. The lithium is mined in Afghanistan, Bolivia and other war-profiteering regions which are exploited by those very same campaign billionaires.

Federal investigators and federal MSDS records state that the thermal vapors from these batteries cause cancer, brain and liver damage, neurological damage and mutate the fetus in the womb. The FAA and the UN have published extensive new rules warning about the lethal dangers of lithium ion batteries. A large percentage of the factory workers, that make lithium ion batteries, become poisoned and often die from the poisoning.

INDICTED FOR CORRUPTION AND STOCK MARKET RIGGING: STEVE RATTNER, THE WHITE HOUSE “CAR CZAR” AND ONE OF THE HEADS OF THE CIA-FACADE: NEW AMERICA FOUNDATION (WHICH IS MANAGED BY GOOGLE):

About time: Cuomo finally sues Steve Rattner

SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK COUNTY OF NEW YORK
----- X
THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK : SUMMONS
By ANDREW M. CUOMO, Attorney General of the : Index No.
State of New York, :
-against- :
STEVEN L. RATTNER, : Plaintiff Designated
Defendant. : New York County
Place of Trial
----- X
TO THE ABOVE-NAMED DEFENDANT:
YOU ARE HEREBY SUMMONED to answer in this action and serve a copy answer, or if the complaint is not served with the summons, to serve a notice of appearance.

It seems that Andrew Cuomo has a wonderful sense of theater.

On the very day that Steve Rattner is all over cable news to discuss GM's (GM) return to the public markets, he has (finally) been sued by the Governor-in-waiting for his alleged role in the New York public pension kickback scandal.

There actually are three separate actions, with the first two seeking to recover a total of $26 million from the former car czar. The third seeks to permanently ban him from the securities industry.

"Steve Rattner was willing to do whatever it took to get his hands on pension fund money including paying kickbacks, orchestrating a movie deal, and funneling campaign contributions," Cuomo said in a statement. "Through these lawsuits, we will recover his ill gotten gains and hold Rattner accountable."

The SEC also has filed suit (here's a copy), and disclosed details of a previously-reported settlement. It says that Rattner has agreed to pay a $6.2 million penalty, and accept a two-year ban from "associating with any investment adviser or broker-dealer."

Got to wonder how that last part will square with his role in the firm that manages the fortune of Rattner friend/apologist Mike Bloomberg... Yes the firm is (intentionally?) structured as an asset manager instead of a broker-dealer, but doesn't the Mayor at some point have a responsibility to speak out against public corruption. I've put in a call to Bloomberg's office, but have not yet received comment.

If you haven't been following the case for the past two years, here is a quick rundown of Rattner's alleged actions (note: I'm cribbing this from an earlier post, because there are only so many times you can write the same thing without going mad):

- Rattner secured a video distribution deal for the brother of New York pension fund CIO David Loglisci, via a (now defunct) Quadrangle portfolio company. The deal was done over the initial objections of portfolio company management. Not only does this indicate pay-to-play, it also would seem to mean that Rattner violated his fiduciary obligations to Quadrangle limited partners (not letter of obligations, but spirit).
- Rattner also helped connect Loglisci's brother with people at film channel IFC, in which Quadrangle was an investor.
- Presumably at Loglisci's suggestion, Rattner secretly hired Hank Morris as a "placement agent," in order to secure a $100 million fund commitment for Quadrangle from the New York State Common Retirement Fund (it was later increased to $150m). This came after Quadrangle's legitimate placement agents had only been able to secure between $25 million and $50 million. Morris got Quadrangle the money without ever setting up or attending any meetings with CRF on Quadrangle's behalf.
- Morris also helped get Quadrangle $75 million from New York City pension systems, via a third-party who since has pled guilty to securities fraud.
- One of Loglisci's brothers put Rattner in touch with potential investors on the West Coast. These included Elliott Broidy, who sat on the board of the Los Angeles Fire & Police Pension Fund. LAFPPF committed $10 million to Quadrangle, and Broidy has since pled guilty to felony charges of rewarding official misconduct.

Steven Rattner was Obama's "Car Czar" who was in charge of trading taxpayer cash from the U.S. Treasury for votes from the Auto Unions. He was indicted for stock market rigging and then became an executive on Google's corrupt New America Foundation, the CIA-like lobbying and political manipulation operation run by Google and the Silicon Valley Oligarchs.

OBAMA AND CLINTON MADE EXTENSIVE USE OF “HONEY-TRAPS”.

Honey-traps are DNC operatives on Match.com, OKCupid, and other big dating sites that spy on, infiltrate, manipulate and create paternity lawsuits, sexual-lawsuits and scandal extortion targeting DNC enemies.

Photos, videos, voice-mails, emails and more prove that this happened. Why would a candidate stoop so low? Is it too ironic that one of those "friends" ran the very same USAID that published the "Let's Dig Up Afghanistan" USAID mining reports AND promoted the Afghan mining deals AND that they were also connected to a notorious foundation AND a famous Silicon Valley billionaire AND Eric Holder's and Steven Chu's law firm: Covington and Burling? The U.S. Congress wants to know!

WHO ARE THE SILICON VALLEY MAFIA?

THE CRIMINALS BEHIND THE STATE AND FEDERAL SILICON SCAM

THESE CORRUPT POLITICAL CARTEL MEMBERS HAVE NOW BEEN PROVEN (BY EMAILS, TESTIMONY, SURVEILLANCE, LEAKS, FINANCIAL AND FEDERAL FBI RECORDS) TO HAVE ENGAGED IN FELONY ATTACKS AND CORRUPTION CRIMES AGAINST TAXPAYERS.

THOUSANDS OF WITNESSES HAVE ALREADY FILED WRITTEN REPORTS WITH THE FEDERAL SPECIAL PROSECUTORS OFFICE, THE FBI, THE GAO, THE EU, THE FTC, THE SEC, THE GRAND JURY OFFICES AND CONGRESSIONAL OFFICES. THE FOLLOWING PARTIES DID CRIMES. THEY MANIPULATED TAXPAYER FUNDS TO LINE THEIR OWN POCKETS AND COORDINATED COVER-UPS LIKE GREEDY ZEALOTS.

THE ENTITIES BELOW ARE NOW TARGETED FOR 100% LEGAL TERMINATION VIA BANKRUPTCY, TRANSPARENCY EXPOSURE, BOYCOTTS, STOCK MARKET PAYOLA ASSET CRASHING, DEEP INVESTIGATION, PUBLIC SURVEILLANCE AND LITIGATION. AS A PUBLIC CITIZEN, YOU ARE ENCOURAGED TO DO YOUR PART TO BRING THESE CORRUPT PUBLIC OFFICIALS AND ENTITIES TO JUSTICE AND TERMINATE THEIR RESOURCES.

What you, as a taxpayer, can do to terminate these corrupt parties:

- See THIS LINK and pass the word in all of your social media. Blog about it as often as you can
- See THIS LINK for TI and pass it around
- Do not let your efforts slide. Make a plan to persue justice and bring these corrupt parties to task. Check on them every month (put it on your date-book) until they are wiped out, 100% legally. Never give up!

- Confront them with the facts at every public speaking event.
- See THIS LINK to see how they did it to you, with the web, and how to use their own tactics against them : >>><http://www.xyzcase.xyz/wp-content/uploads/OBAMAS-INTERNET-ATTACK-PROGRAM-AGAINST-CITIZENS.pdf>
- Make a point of getting ten new people to help with the boycotts and complaint filings, every day. Make certain that the whole planet knows about their dirty deeds, a few people at a time.

Update 4.8

These people are connected to a six trillion dollar embezzlement scam which uses state and federal funds, via politically created crony insider deals. You have heard of this scam in the news reports about the Solyndra FBI raid, the Seth Rich death, the CBS TV 60 Minutes investigative videos called “The Cleantech Crash” and “Congress: Trading stock on inside information”, Wikileaks, The Snowden Papers, The Sony Hack, the Panama Papers and other major news coverage. California, Nevada, New York and Washington Senators traded taxpayer cash for power and were supported by Silicon Valley billionaires in one of the largest election-rigging and stock market fraud cases in U.S. History. Pelosi, Reed, Feinstein and Jerry Brown were aware of these crimes. California’s Kamala Harris was fully informed yet covered them up to protect her friend Obama. James Comey was fired over these crimes.

Criminal and/ illicit activities evidence exists in detailed case files on each party below. These file sets are now held by hundreds of parties around the globe.

Hacks, leaks, whistle-blower, ex-employee, journalist, law enforcement and case evidence against each is substantial and growing daily.

This “Who’s Who” of corporate bad guys caused vast, and numerically quantifiable, damages to the Plaintiffs and the U.S. taxpayers.

NOT A SINGLE ONE OF THE ATTACKERS HAS AVOIDED ONGOING INVESTIGATION AND/OR SURVEILLANCE AND/OR TERMINATION AND/OR BANKRUPTCY AND/OR LAWSUITS AND/OR FEDERAL COMPLAINTS FILED AGAINST EACH.

“The brutal attack on our lives, income, families, health and brands is not something that we can ever forgive.

You used Democracy as your plaything and turned the U.S. Government into a frat house operated by sociopath Silicon Valley billionaires. You took decades of our lives away because you were self-absorbed technology oligarchs who used bought-and-paid-for politicians to manipulate our government and you manipulated our tax dollars against us.

The victims of your crimes have joined with every transparency organization, every journalist, every public interest law firm, all of the internet, every voter and many new technology solutions to eradicate you without breaking a single law.

Every single one of you has been identified and is now being prosecuted with the full authority of the law and public transparency. You will never be able to do this to anybody again without suffering dramatically accelerated, 100% legal, consequences.”

Our message to the corrupt:

The price of attacking us is, at the least, the loss of billions of dollars of your revenue and brand value, and at the best, the bankruptcy of your entire business, the firing of your executives and the reduction of your corporate and individual stock value to as close to zero as possible. We have hundreds of millions of voters and some very amazing investigators who have accomplished these goals each and every single time. Don't break the law! We will find you, investigate you with FBI-Level resources, and prosecute you to the fullest extent that the law and creativity can conceivably allow! We never give up and we always get our man!

GOOGLE HAS ABUSED THE PUBLIC, THE LAW AND EVERY DIGITAL MORALITY STANDARD.

Google was one of the primary beneficiaries, organizers, staff providers, White House lobbyists and stock market manipulators in this crime!

Google/Alphabet/JigSaw/In-Q-Tel/New America Foundation/YouTube/Gmail, etc...and all of the many other facades of Google, exist for the primary purpose of manipulating the public for political, ideological and profiteering purposes using psychological warfare technologies.

Google operates hit-jobs, character assassinations, brand defamation programs, stock market pump--and-dump hype and other fake news synchronized information manipulation on behalf of the whims of Larry Page, Eric Schmidt, David Drummond, John Doerr, Jared Cohen, John Podesta and George Soros.

Google gets Gawker, Gizmodo, Univision, Huffpo, Jalopnik and similar tabloids to post attack article hatchet jobs and then Google locks them on the internet, on the front pages of the web, forever.

Via Email To Google & WSGR staff & hard copy letters

Dear Eric and Kent:

As you are aware, new staff at the U.S. Departments of Energy and Justice, new Wikileaks documents, recent news reports and our on-going investigations have now provided irrefutable proof that Google, it's executives and investors engaged in a large number of anti-trust-violating attacks on our company for competitive, political and generally malicious reasons. Our 1000+ server node test system has proven that Google rigged the internet to damage and manipulate news information for Google's and Tesla's interests and against our interests in vastly damaging manners. Because Google has set the digital attacks, redirects, DNS leans and other internet artifices, damaging us, in a permanent state across the internet, the time bar/statute of limitations resets itself every morning.

Google's participation in the data and brand defamation attacks against us are widely covered in other lawsuits and federal reports. Google's manipulation of election information is now covered in over ten thousand reports. The authors of many of those reports are prepared to participate as expert witnesses at our trial. Our previous legal, law enforcement and IC actions have set a large number of legal precedents and terminated over 190 of the top, and most corrupt executives in Silicon Valley and Washington, DC. We believe we have the full cooperation of the FCC, FTC and FBI in this matter. We intend to source venture financing, including Russian development funds, and sue Google for our damages unless Google wishes to settle this matter in advance of filing..."

A number of Plaintiffs have similar evidence and hard facts that prove beyond a shadow of a doubt, Google's complicity.

You can invest in the litigation, as some invested in the case against Google's attack partner; the unscrupulous attack tabloid: Gawker Media, and you can win big cash awards.

You can sponsor a law firm for the victims and win big cash awards.

Email: grow@incubation.space if you are a qualified and interested sponsor.

The legal filing costs and expenses are $500,000.00

The jury awards demanded, and proven by court precedents, are in excess of one billion dollars. Google spends $100M per day just on payroll so $1B is just a drop in the bucket for them. Your Return On Investment (ROI) could be spectacular.

Sponsor this exciting opportunity to make history. Invest cash or professional law firm time. NDA execution and conflict/mole checks to be executed.

How Team Obama Hacked The Elections

By Paul Sperry

New revelations have surfaced that the Obama administration abused intelligence during the election by launching a massive domestic-spy campaign that included snooping on Trump officials.

The irony is mind-boggling: Targeting political opposition is long a technique of police states like Russia, which Team Obama has loudly condemned for allegedly using its own intelligence agencies to hack into our election.

The revelations, as well as testimony this week from former Obama intel officials, show the extent to which the Obama administration politicized and weaponized intelligence against Americans.

Thanks to Circa News, we now know the National Security Agency under President Barack Obama routinely violated privacy protections while snooping through foreign intercepts involving US citizens — and failed to disclose the breaches, prompting the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court a month before the election to rebuke administration officials.

The story concerns what's known as "upstream" data collection under Section 702 of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act, under which the NSA looks at the content of electronic communication. Upstream refers to intel scooped up about third parties: Person A sends Person B an e-mail mentioning Person C. Though Person C isn't a party to the e-mail, his information will be scooped up and potentially used by the NSA.

Further, the number of NSA data searches about Americans mushroomed after Obama loosened rules for protecting such identities from government officials and thus the reporters they talk to.

The FISA court called it a "very serious Fourth Amendment issue" that NSA analysts — in violation of a 2011 rule change prohibiting officials from searching Americans' information without a warrant — "had been conducting such queries in violation of that prohibition, with much greater frequency than had been previously disclosed to the Court."

A number of those searches were made from the White House, and included private citizens working for the Trump campaign, some of whose identities were leaked to the media. The revelations earned a stern rebuke from the ACLU and from civil-liberties champion Sen. Rand Paul.

We also learned this week that Obama intelligence officials really had no good reason attaching a summary of a dossier on Trump to a highly classified Russia briefing they gave to Obama just weeks before Trump took office.

Under congressional questioning Tuesday, Obama's CIA chief John Brennan said the dossier did not "in any way" factor into the agency's assessment that Russia interfered in the election. Why not? Because as Obama intel czar James Clapper earlier testified, "We could not corroborate the sourcing."

But that didn't stop Brennan in January from attaching its contents to the official report for the president. He also included the unverified allegations in the briefing he gave Hill Democrats.

In so doing, Brennan virtually guaranteed that it would be leaked, which it promptly was.

In short, Brennan politicized raw intelligence. In fact, he politicized the entire CIA.

Langley vets say Brennan was the most politicized director in the agency's history. Former CIA field-operations officer Gene Coyle said Brennan was "known as the greatest sycophant in the history of the CIA, and a supporter of Hillary Clinton before the election. I find it hard to put any real credence in anything that the man says."

Coyle noted that Brennan broke with his predecessors who stayed out of elections. Several weeks before the vote, he made it very clear he was pulling for Hillary. His deputy Mike Morell even came out and publicly endorsed her in The New York Times, claiming Trump was an “unwitting agent” of Moscow.

Brennan isn't just a Democrat. He's a radical leftist who in 1980 — during the height of the Cold War — voted for a Communist Party candidate for president.

When Brennan rants about the dangers of strongman Vladimir Putin targeting our elections and subverting our democratic process, does he not catch at least a glimpse of his own reflection?

What he and the rest of the Obama gang did has inflicted more damage on the integrity of our electoral process than anything the Russians have done. Paul Sperry is the author of “Infiltration: How Muslim Spies and Subversives Have Penetrated Washington.”

Deeper than simply “rogue CIA/NSA agency” abuse, the Obama Administration abused something far worse: The free will of the public.

You can find a huge number of YouTube movies and white papers, online, about an advertising trick called “Subliminal Messaging”. The bottom line of all of the existing research is that the human mind can easily be tricked into thinking it is doing something out of free will, when, in fact, a political or advertising campaign is tricking your subconscious mind. No matter how smart, or savvy, you think you are, your mind can be tricked into hate, rage, murder or voting intentions by psychological media tricks.

The CIA are experts at using this technique to overthrow governments.

Obama used his financiers Google, Twitter and Facebook to trick the American public into voting for him. His team then tried to use the same media manipulation tricks to put Hillary Clinton in office.

Google, Twitter and Facebook used CIA technology to do these things. CIA and IN-Q-TEL officers work at, manage and fund, Google, Twitter and Facebook.

Google supplied the majority of the staff for the Obama Administration. Numerous investigative reports detail how Obama was “Google's Bitch”. The connections are, by now, obvious. Google, Twitter and Facebook used over $22 billion dollars of psychological warfare tricks and ultra-advanced subliminal messaging to put Obama in office and try to keep him there. Google's Eric Schmidt is a spy more than anything else.

That is an FEC campaign financing felony law violation of over twenty one billion dollars. In other words, the Obama people never reported the twenty two billion dollars of services that they had Google, Twitter and Facebook expend on rigging DNC campaign interests. That is the largest FEC campaign law violation in history! They broke the law and NOBODY is holding them accountable!

Donald Trump's “Trump Tower” was bugged to listen to meetings with, not only, Russian diplomats, but also oil industry execs and Peter Thiel's biggest secrets. Who had the capability to pull that off? That answer is obvious.

We now have absolute, indisputable proof that Google rigged the U.S. elections but the Special Counsel and the top agencies refuse to allow it to be exposed in public investigations. All of the evidence has now been released to all of the transparency organizations and independent media and the public can read it and decide for themselves.

James Risen and Laura Poitras, two journalists who have experienced first-hand the consequences of pissing off the federal government in the course of performing uncompromising investigative journalism, have a story in today's New York Times revealing a new layer of the NSA's domestic surveillance activities. Edward Snowden's leaked documents are the source of the report, which shows that since November 2010, NSA has been mining its vast data collections to "create sophisticated graphs of some Americans' social connections that can identify their associates, their locations at certain times, their traveling companions and other personal information."

The policy shift was intended to help the agency "discover and track" connections between intelligence targets overseas and people in the United States, according to an N.S.A. memorandum from January 2011. The agency was authorized to conduct "large-scale graph analysis on very large sets of communications metadata without having to check foreignness" of every e-mail address, phone number or other identifier, the document said. Because of concerns about infringing on the privacy of American citizens, the computer analysis of such data had previously been permitted only for foreigners.

The agency can augment the communications data with material from public, commercial and other sources, including bank codes, insurance information, Facebook profiles, passenger manifests, voter registration rolls and GPS location information, as well as property records and unspecified tax data, according to the documents. They do not indicate any restrictions on the use of such "enrichment" data, and several former senior Obama administration officials said the agency drew on it for both Americans and foreigners. Obama is now thought to have used the data to attack and manipulate U.S. voters in order to rig the elections.

N.S.A. officials declined to say how many Americans have been caught up in the effort, including people involved in no wrongdoing. The documents do not describe what has resulted from the scrutiny, which links phone numbers and e-mails in a "contact chain" tied directly or indirectly to a person or organization overseas that is of foreign intelligence interest.

SILICON VALLEY’S LITHIUM MINING CORRUPTION PAYOLA

The Obama and Clinton Administration promised their financiers: Elon Musk, John Doerr, Larry, Page, Eric Schmidt, Vinod Khosla, Martin LaGod, Steve Westly, Steve Spinner, Steven Chu, Nancy Pelosi, Dianne Feinstein and their “Silicon Valley Cartel”; a monopolistic exclusive on the exploitation of Afghan war profiteering mines for lithium ion batteries, indium mines for Solyndra solar panels and other “rare earth” mines. Those administrations promised to “take out”, or delay, all technologies or competitors that threatened the lithium ion monopoly promised to Silicon Valley. That was a felony crony payola crime!

Silicon Valley's In-Q-Tel private services spy company has also developed a special technology laboratory in Silicon Valley, called Lab41, to provide tools for the intelligence community to connect the dots in large sets of data. In February, Lab41 published an article exploring the ways in which a Twitter user's location could be predicted with a degree of certainty through the location of the user's friends. On Github, an open source website for developers, Lab41 currently has a project to ascertain the "feasibility of using architectures such as Convolutional and Recurrent Neural Networks to classify the positive, negative, or neutral sentiment of Twitter messages towards a specific topic." Collecting intelligence on foreign adversaries has potential benefits for counterterrorism, but such CIA-supported surveillance technology is also used for domestic law enforcement and by the private sector to spy on activist groups. Palantir, one of In-Q-Tel's earliest investments in the social media analytics realm, was exposed in 2011 by the hacker group LulzSec to be in negotiation for a proposal to track labor union activists and other critics of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, the largest business lobbying group in Washington. The company, now celebrated as a "tech unicorn" — a term for start-ups that reach over $1 billion in valuation — distanced itself from the plan after it was exposed in a cache of leaked emails from the now-defunct firm HBGary Federal.

Yet other In-Q-Tel-backed companies are now openly embracing the practice. Geofeedia, for instance, promotes its research into Greenpeace activists, student demonstrations, minimum wage advocates, and other political movements. Police departments in Oakland, Chicago, Detroit, and other major municipalities have contracted with Geofeedia, as well as private firms such as the Mall of America and McDonald's. Although these Silicon Valley "Big Data" systems have missed every major terror attack, Google's investors keep selling their crap software and failed "Big Data" services to the U.S. Government.

Lee Guthman, an executive at Geofeedia, told reporter John Knefel that his company could predict the potential for violence at Black Lives Matter protests just by using the location and sentiment of tweets. Guthman said the technology could gauge sentiment by attaching "positive and negative points" to certain phrases, while measuring "proximity of words to certain words." Privacy advocates, however, have expressed concern about these sorts of automated judgments. "When you have private companies deciding which algorithms get you a so-called threat score, or make you a person of interest, there's obviously room for targeting people based on viewpoints or even unlawfully targeting people based on race or religion," said Lee Rowland, a senior staff attorney with the American Civil Liberties Union.

HUNTING DOWN THE CULPRITS

Thanks to extraordinary work by federal investigators, Congressional staff, news journalists, private investigators and the public, each and every culprit behind the Department of Energy and Silicon Valley Slush-Fund has been hunted down identified, interdicted and placed under financial, law enforcement and political beneficiary surveillance for the rest of their lives. They (Over 220 individuals and corrupt businesses) have been, or are now being:

- Fired
- Arrested
- Sued
- Indicted
- Bankrupted
- Subpoenaed
- Surveillance Documented With Publicly Released Case Files
- Stock-crashed Via Public Exposure of Illicit Deeds
- And otherwise punished for their crimes...

If any of them engage in a single crime, illicit deed, vice squad violation or other socially damaging action, it will be documented and reported to every jurisdictional party!

Over 70% of the criminally corrupt entities have now been interdicted. The Task Force working on this effort will not ever rest until that number reaches 100%. Any suspect can pay the damages they caused, at any time.

100% of the criminally corrupt entities have now been identified.

PUBLIC TAKE-DOWNS AND TERMINATIONS AGAINST PROVEN CORRUPT ENTITIES USING 100% LEGAL METHODOLOGIES:

The voting public has discovered that it is fun and effective to join together to terminate corrupt entities via boycotts, class action lawsuits, doxxing and other legal anti-corruption measures. Here are some of their recent success:

Per one site dedicated to anti-corruption:

“Silicon Valley Cartel” elitists have synthetically created “high social status” that they self-promote at TED Talks and on Social Media companies their friends control. (ie: Elon Musk’s constant self-promotion about how god-like he thinks he is) When they affirm the groupthink to become more popular, they also strengthen the groupthink by strengthening the appearance that everyone is unanimous in affirming the groupthink on Silicon Valley social media. This is a “mnemonic feedback loop” that you can exploit.

There is an opportunity for disruption here.

The plan is simple: whenever a celebrity or other “high-status figure” panders to the Silicon Valley Cartel profiteering agenda, we must make them pay for abusing the public for profit. The goal is to create an aversion to their dogma, thereby allowing it to fall victim to its own corrosive energy by means of division. The majority of Silicon Valley clones will still believe it, of course, but our strategy here can free the best people from the groupthink, and freeing the best is all one needs to pop the Silicon Valley brain-washing bubble.

As to how to make them pay, there are a few ways, per CIA manuals employed by Google:

1. Meme them down. The spread of memetic propaganda mocking, belittling, and degrading those who pander to the Silicon Valley Cartel will result in an adverse reaction to pandering. The attack need not be limited to their pandering, but should focus on it. If we do this with a few high-profile people in a row, a pattern will emerge, wherein pandering is visibly seen to lead to social censure. Since people, Silicon Valley Cartelists in particular, fear ostracism more than death, it follows that this strategy will discourage pandering exponentially the more it is used. If high-status people begin to see pandering as career suicide, we have won a major battle.
2. Boycott them. This takes two forms. First, refuse to consume Silicon Valley Cartel-infected media, even if the source is otherwise reputable. In some cases, it will be unavoidable, but for the most part, you ought to be able to boycott groupthink-infected entities. The effect of boycotting is not strictly monetary. In addition to refusing to give them your money, you are depriving them of attention, which, in our society, causes institutions to wither. For example, if you stop listening to a particular podcast because that podcast is groupthink-infected, then whenever someone wants to talk to you about it, you can shrug and say, “I don’t listen to that anymore.” This makes said podcast less of a social asset because fewer people consume it. Removing attention from entities in our society kills those entities, crashes their stock value, shuts down profits from their movies and exposes their scam.

3. Attack them peripherally. In addition to meming them down and boycotting them, we can denigrate anyone who panders to the Silicon Valley Cartel by means of indirect attack. “So-and-so is a panderer” is fine, but if you can attack and denigrate the content in general of someone who panders to the Silicon Valley Cartel, you’re still draining away their energy. This requires a subtle understanding: consequence is more important than strict logical implication. If every person who panders to the Silicon Valley Cartel experiences a drop in popularity, whether or not that drop comes from people hating them for their pandering or peripheral attacks by the aware in response to their pandering, the overall pattern visible to society will be “pander → crash and burn.” This is key.
4. Sue them. Get others together and file class-action lawsuits against the Silicon Valley abusers. File RICO corruption lawsuits against them. Sue them in civil court and collect your damages from them. Sue each executive and investor, yourself, in small claims court, one-at-a-time. Get $10K from each of them for abusing your rights.
5. DOX them. Expose their hookers, rent boys, rapes, pedo clubs, tax evasions, expense account frauds, Uber trips, Sexual harassments, racial discriminations, divorces, secret overseas accounts, real estate, salaries and all of the dirt on their corrupt activities. Make sure the information is seen by everyone. The Silicon Valley Cartel has been proven to be one sick bunch of puppies.
6. Audit their hacks. Don’t hack anyone, that is illegal. When they do get hacked, there is usually too much information for little groups like Wikileaks or ICIJ to review. YOU should review it all and find the juicy bits and send they key finds to many top reporters.
7. More... There are hundreds of other things you can try. Just search: “Anti-corruption tactics” on DuckDuckgo.com. These are criminals who have broken the law and bribed judges, Senators and some top law enforcement bosses to run cover for them. It is your responsibility, as a citizen, to help take them down. The justice system will not do it any more.

Don’t break the law. All of the things above are 100% legal and you will actually get help from Congressional investigators because they want these crooks shut down, too.

Remember that the Silicon Valley Cartel is made up of people who live for popularity and validation as their constant look-at-me whining at TED Talks, and other self-glorification idiocies, prove. Deprive them of that in response to their more toxic behaviors, and you’re well on your way to controlling them, like putting a shock collar on a dog. You can make Eric Schmidt YOUR bitch, in this manner and reverse his current hold over society.

This tactic will succeed if it becomes an automatic response to any pandering whatsoever. You can leverage this into a wider change if everyone is careful and precise about it, so make sure to spread this article and this idea far and wide.
