Pelosi repeatedly says incorrect words: 'Commensurate — common sense', 'Tax force — task force'

Nancy Pelosi's ongoing bizarre behavior may be a key reason why many Democrats are refusing to support her for a potential future leadership position.

As the House Minority Leader spoke to reporters in Thursday, she repeatedly used the wrong word in sentences, awkwardly correcting herself so she was clear to the journalists.

Speaking about new gun control legislation, she said there is a “commensurate bi-partisan — common sense bi-partisan supp, uh, path forward.”

Moments later, she repeated words and mistakenly said “tax force,” before enunciating “task force.”

Pelosi fell back into previous talking points, nearly saying “comprehensive immigration bill” when talking about gun control.

“So we’re just say to, we’re just saying to the Speaker, ‘Give us a vote, just give us a vote,’” she repeated.

As Pelosi attempted to again slam the popular Trump tax cut, she botched the numbers created by the Democratic Party.

“Once the tax scam is fully phased in, 6 million middle class families — excuse me,” she said, staring at her notes. “86 million middle class families,” she continued as reporters sat in silence.

Moments later she said Republicans are going to take “$500 billion out of Medicare. One-and-a-half — excuse me,” she stopped herself. “Trillion — half a trillion dollars out of Medicare,” she continued, apparently believing $500 billion and half-a-trillion are different numbers.

While talking about transparency in settlements with sex harassment victims, Pelosi said, “I don’t want to herm — harm victims...”

Condemning members of the Trump administration who are leaving, she said, “They’re having served in that White House for one year is a giant enhancement as they go out to the public sector — private sector, the private sector,” she corrected herself.

If Pelosi wants to stay in leadership, she may have a tough road head.

During a recent candidate forum of Democrats vying for an Arizona congressional seat, not a single one raised their hand to indicate support for Pelosi.

Pelosi, or Skeletor as Mark Dice calls her, needs to retire. Her Alzheimers is breaking her down and everyone in DC knows it That story about the meds was about her according to Jack Posobiec. But at the same time, even though I don't want to laugh at her, she is so damned funny.

Some here will say get out but on second thought, I'm with Trump when he said he wishes Nancy stays in leadership for a great many more years. She is 78 now, she could pull out another decade or so at least, we should all hope. If any of you forgot, since she became a leader of the Dems, they've lost over 1,000 seats across the nation.

The real problem for us all is the media. Fox going left wing lately (especially that puke Shep) leaves us only with One America News, which everyone here should try.

They are truly conservative. They're small yet with access to only 45 million Americans but growing strong. Same with Drudge vs Whatfinger News. Drudge lately has been filled with sex robots and fake news links, his conservative competitor is small but far superior. I bet you'd agree. Here

I'm with Trump, may she stay in office for 20 more years :)

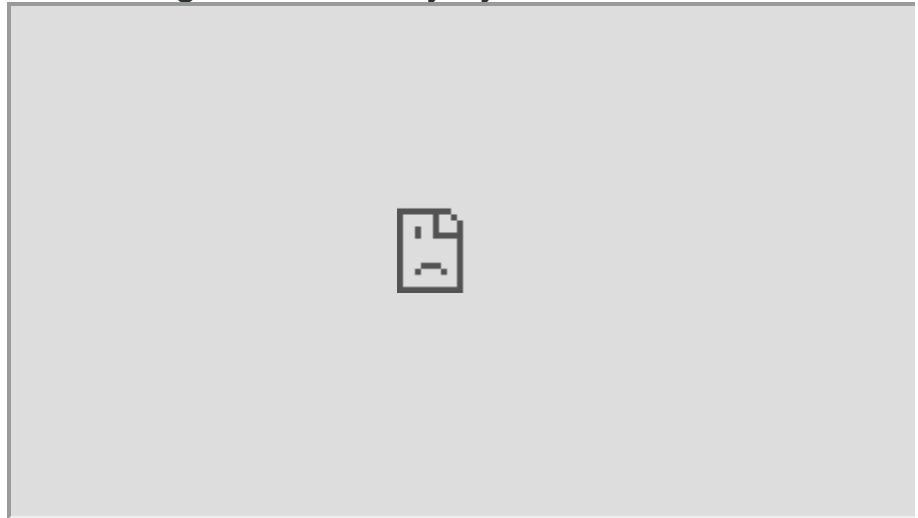

Hey in the ticker on top of that link you posted for Whatfinger, they have Tom Fitton and a link to his speech. He said "We can now justify the legally justified arrest of Hillary Clinton" Man that is nice. I love Judicial Watch. Trump has this, An Idiot in the House like Nancy, and little by little it looks like justice will soon be served with Clinton and the FBI . If only we could get rid of Sessions this would be so much faster.

Diversity never means anything other than Less White People

When is any country or institution “too black” “too yellow” etc. and needing of “diversity”?

The self-proclaimed "progressives" demand No White Anything Anywhere

How is this not Anti White?
How is this not Geno cide?

She's suffering under the use of anti-depressants that ObammyCare allowed coverage for when many private insurers would not cover. ObammyCare, that she voted for, is killing her.

70% of the US population is under the cloud o anti-depressant use and 10% is selling them to others, stupid Americans.

To associate the 3 stooges w/ those 3 is the ultimate insult. The 3 stooges brought comedy to us and didn't hurt the U.S.

There is nothing funny about these 3 or any other liberal Dems.

Curious: Has anyone ever seen Maxine smile?

I get the feeling her Mama told her "you keep frowning like that, hon, and your face gonna' freeze up that way!"

She didn't listen to her Mama.

Her eyes even look oddly bloodshot in the article video... she should have retired long ago. Unfortunately I wouldn't be surprised if she's one of the ones the Congressional pharmacy indicated was getting Alzheimer's medications - I say unfortunately because I wouldn't wish that on anyone. Regardless, it's a disgrace that we've got people like this in Congress.

Vlad must be laughing his ass off knowing that people like Nancy P control major policies of the US. I am sure they have a special Nancy P section that reports her actions on a daily basis ! Its called the " What did Nancy say today section " and is billed more as a comedy hour ! I understand they are setting up a Section called " what did " Shifty Schiff say today ", we could learn some Propaganda moves from this Dope !
