Twitter banned both the official verified account for the Proud Boys and the account belonging to their founder, comedian and CRTV host Gavin McInnes on Friday night.

Twitter also banned the accounts belonging to The Proud Boys Girls, all chapter accounts, and Kyle Chapman, who is better known online as Based Stickman.

The suspensions are permanent, though no reason was provided. All of the accounts appear to have been banned at the same time.

At the same time Twitter allows David Duke, Louis Farrakhan, Hamas, Antifa terrorists and radical Black Lives Matter hate groups to keep their accounts.

Hamas terrorists have a Twitter account.

Racist and Jew-hater Louis Farrakhan still has an account.
This anti-Semitic tweet is pinned at the top of his page.

Racist David Duke has an account.

The Iranian Guard Special Forces posted this threat to Israel recently.

Antifa terrorists organize over Twitter to commit assaults on Trump supporters.

The organization "Antifa" has engaged in systematic violent behavior including felony assault.

I am calling on @TwitterSafety to abide by their TOS & remove this violent and dangerous organization + associated accounts from the platform.

And the violent cop-hating Black Lives Matter groups have Twitter accounts.

Ferguson.

Twitter actually promotes the violent Black Lives Matter tweets.
