

OVER 1000 SAN FRANCISCO OFFICIALS, EMPLOYEES AND INSIDERS INVOLVED IN RACKETEERING

- Is San Francisco even dirtier than Chicago?

On April 9, Azul Works Inc., a San Francisco construction engineering firm, obtained a PPP loan of between $1 million and $2 million. At the time, Azul Works Chief Executive Baltimore Hernandez was already under scrutiny by the Federal Bureau of Investigation for his alleged role in a sprawling corruption probe involving former San Francisco Public Works Director Mohammed Nuru, court documents show.

Two months after the loan's approval, Mr. Hernandez was charged with bribery for allegedly supplying more than $250,000 of labor and materials to help build a vacation home for Mr. Nuru in exchange for help landing a city contract for which his firm wasn't qualified, according to prosecutors. San Francisco is now moving to bar Azul Works from doing business with the city for the next five years.

Mr. Hernandez has yet to enter a plea. His attorney said the company will be contesting the city's debarment, which it called unwarranted.

Mr. Nuru, who calls himself "MrCleanSF" on Twitter, has also not entered a plea. Neither he nor his lawyer returned calls seeking comment.

Who are the insiders that control San Francisco money and dirty politics? They are said to include:

Most San Francisco elite arrogant asshole dynasties send their kids to Stanford University.

Stanford puts the kids in asshole frat houses to train them to get away with rape and run monopolies.

When they graduate they either go up the hill to Sandhill Road and start a venture capital clone operation or they get their frat friends on Sandhill Road to racketeer-fund their start-up or political campaign using money scammed from your parents pension funds.

They only work with their frat buddies and insiders in a tribal 'old boys club' manner.

They steal all the technology and markets they want because they control all of the tech lawyers and politicians via bribes and revolving doors.

Stanford bosses keep all of this covered-up and covertly fund political campaigns to grease the wheels of political corruption.

They then sexually extort some Stanford interns in Rosewood Hotel rooms, get the most 'trophy wife' ones pregnant, and start the cycle all over again.

The FBI has recently started arresting them but there are a vast number of them still running around doing their dirty deeds

Apologies if done elsewhere in here. Facebook-if it didn't exist the communists would have to invent it. Eat, drink and be merry, for tomorrow you may be in Utah! 1

Before the 1906 earthquake. During this time San Francisco went through much commercial growth and became an important shipping port, but matured to a level which would forbid any more uprisings by vigilantes. Without the threat of vigilante justice, corruption and crime begin to return along with predatory dives similar to those of Sydney Town. The Barbary Coast would continue to build on its ...
