

How ((Sony)) Marketing Boss David Rubenstein Turned NPR Into A Turd-Fest!

No Question NPR is a dishonest monster with an anti American agenda (whatever) submitted 11 hours ago by ActuallyAGoodThing

Yesterday they had a segment on net neutrality.

They framed the entire segment about rural bandwidth.

They didn't mention once how net neutrality protects small websites like Voat from being throttled by ISP's/content providers who either don't want to compete with the content or who have political disagreements/agendas.

There is no way they could not have known that is a massive issue. They even brought in experts, who ignored that elephant in the room too.

NPR are a bunch of propagandism fucking liars. I have begun to seriously hate them as human beings.

I still like listening to them each morning to know what the left is thinking that day. Easier to fend them off if you know where they're coming from. When the commie comes at you at the water cooler you already know what NPR tripe they're going to spout and can be prepared to shut them down with authority.

Know your enemy. I knew a guy in the military that had his homepage set to the PETA website for that stupid boat of theirs.

You could say NPR is Jewish too. Same thing.

I won't fall into that trap. I refuse to join the anti-jew bandwagon just because the Zionists use them as a shield.

I refuse to be blamed for the actions of the NeoConservative, or the Neo-Nazis, so how is it fair to blame all Jews for the cockroach Zionists and Lying Scheming Mossad?

I don't hate Jews either, but they did create Marxism, Communism, murder the Russian monarch, started a civil war in Spain, attempted to start a civil war in Germany, Italy, Poland, Hungary, got Lord Rothchilds to convince the last king of England to give Palestine to the Jewry, ahem, Rothchilds himself so he could create Israel and begin genocide, own Hollywood, have infiltrated the University, control the media, and are behind every attempt at forced multiculturalism by their own admission.

Take a look at how they dominate our elite universities yet still benefit from affirmative action

It's like when you welcome Muslims into your countries. Most of them don't go blow shit up, but when the group is there, you get allah snackbar incidents. The more of them you let in or the more they grow in numbers, the more allah snackbars you get.

If you tolerate a Jewish population, you get Jewed.

Because there are actual organizations of Jewish individuals that are effecting every aspect of our society, and there aren't groups of Neo-Nazis doing the same?

Like sure, not all Jews are part of the conspiracy, but they're only 2% of our population yet they have a ridiculous presence just about everywhere. There's an issue with Judaism.

I listened to this American Life recently. It was about how you shouldn't worry about your daughter being a prostitute, so yeah...

I thought it was amusing six weeks ago they were arguing in favor of diplomacy with North Korea. Then trump sends a diplomat and NPR immediately runs stories denouncing the act as "giving them legitimacy".

If you can't stick to a narrative then your propaganda just simply isn't going to work.

NPR has been far left anti-American for the past 30+ years. I won't allow it in my car or home.

We need to purge all subversive, anti-nationalist, corporatist influence from our media, schools and businesses if we are to survive another hundred years on this planet.

This is common knowledge. 60 seconds should be all you need to call it as you hear it.
