Shareblue is a WordPress site, meaning everything they upload to their site goes into extremely predictable year/month folders such as "2017/01", "2017/02", etc. etc. Normally this isn't a huge deal, but Shareblue forgot to turn off their Apache directory listings, so simply typing in the directory will show you all the files it contains:

/wp-content/uploads/2017/01/

/wp-content/uploads/2017/02/

/wp-content/uploads/2017/03/

etc.

Here's a screenshot before shareblue realized they fucked up and fixed their server: <https://kek.gg/i/7kB4dF.jpeg> JPEG

This is from Blue Nation Review, another site that had similar issues: <https://kek.gg/i/NBsnk.jpeg> JPEG

The seven most important ones: <https://kek.gg/i/4Q3qmx.png> PNG

And there's a fuckton of interesting stuff here including images, video files, and a few documents. The files go back to 2016/08.

Shills will yell "thesre's nothing there": <https://kek.gg/i/YYqDN.jpeg> JPEG

You want names and addresses? <https://kek.gg/i/43cYtX.jpeg> JPEG

You can mass-download everything by running "wget -m -np {url}" on the listings page which will download every link it finds.

Every page has neem backed up in archive.is, so even if they disable directory listings you'll still be able to access every media file individually (until they rename them all).

These people have actively worked to undermine American democracy. Just before anyone starts getting pissy about them receiving emails and calls.

There's a gold mine of information here and now we have it all before they fixed their server. This is huge really.

I hope so. I haven't had the time to even scatch the surface.

You "hacked" a WordPress blog? The name/address part might break the dox rule, but good job if this outs any actual leftists... Though most of voats leftists are easy to spot as they all congregate in SBBH.

Lmao, how is sbbh leftist? Pls post proof.

Dox rule only applies to voat users.

The name/address part might break the dox rule

That's already been out in the open and is easy to get.

Merry Christmas! Thanks for posting and saving these for posterity. I'll be using this to redpill friends on the shilling of the past two years.
